HERE'S ANOTHER OF THOSE KINSTON YARNS

Kinston (Special)—The "craziest" experience John Holbert, negro, ever had left him shocked but practically unhurt, he said today. He cranked a 10-year-old flivver and it ran over him. In a hurry to be off on errand, he had failed to take proper precautions. His legs were bruised, but slightly. The car ran 10 feet and stopped against a tree. The "blamed thing" always did make trouble, Holbert said, but he could not blame it for running over him. He cranked it again and left it for a moment, the motor running. It ran down an incline and ran over him again. He threw a wrench at it. The wrench struck a tire, rebound and struck him on the ankle. "It nearly ruined me," Holbert said. It all happened within five minutes.

Judge (rapping on desk): "Order, gentlemen, order!"
Juryman (just awakening): "Egg sandwich and cup of coffee."

MOUNTAIN PARK

Mountain Park Home Demonstration Club Meets

The club met Wednesday, May 3, at the club room with twenty-four members and one visitor present. Mrs. Clint Saylor, president, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. C. C. Cockerham gave as the devotional a poem, "Prayer for Grace in Little Things." The roll call was answered with current events.

Mrs. A. F. Kinzie in a very interesting manner described a tour of the club women of the county, recently made to some of the flower gardens and places of interest in and around Winston-Salem.

The minor project for the month, "Pictures in the Home," was discussed by Mrs. C. C. Thompson. Paints in the proper selection and framing were brought out.

Mrs. Paul Burch, Food Conservation leader, discussed the importance of curing, preserving and canning for future use. She also gave some good recipes.

The major project for the month was salads, and this was brought to us by Mrs. I. O. Wallace in a demonstration of a vegetable and a fruit salad. Salads should be given a more important place in our diet.

The district meeting will be held in Mocksville May 24. All
