Mrs. D. J. Cockerham Is Feted on Eighty-eighth Birthday

Honoring Mrs. D. J. Cockerham on her eighty-eighth birthday anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Cockerham entertained at a buffet dinner at their home in Chatham Park Sunday. The guests were the children, a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the honoree.

The dining room table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a handsomely decorated cake bearing the significant number of candles. A color scheme of green and white was emphasized in the appointments.

Those attending were the honoree, Mrs. D. J. Cockerham, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Poore and daughters, Ruth and Louise, of Mt. Airy; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Martin, of Charlotte, and daughter and son, Miss Marcelle Martin, of Charlotte, and Jimmy Martin, of New York; Woodson and Grady Cockerham, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cockerham and Miss Estelle Cockerham, all of Elkin.

Mrs. Cockerham was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Legion Auxiliary Meets Tuesday Evening

The Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred McNeely on West Main street with Mrs. H. B. Holcomb associate hostess, with 12 members and two visitors present.

The meeting opened with the ritual, followed by prayer by the chaplain, Mrs. L. E. Aldridge. During the business session a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Joe Bivins, Mrs. F. W. Graham and Mrs. Edworth Harris was appointed to select officers for the coming year. Other routine business was dispatched. It was voted to have the June meeting, which will be the last meeting until September, on June 6, a week earlier than the regular meeting date, in order to have final reports ready for the state convention in Raleigh the latter part of June.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Fred Colhard. The subject for the month was Poppy Day and plans were made for the observance of the day by the unit. Buddy poppies will be sold during the day Saturday, May 27, by auxiliary members and many outside helpers. Prefacing the program Mrs. Joe Bivins gave a report of the area conference in Statesville which she attended last month and Mrs. F. W. Graham read the poem "In Flanders Fields."

During a pleasant social hour the hostesses served tempting refreshments.

ELKIN FURNITURE NINE LOSES TWO BALL GAMES

The Elkin Furniture nine lost two games over the week-end. On Saturday they lost to the Fries, Va., team at Fries and Sunday to the Hanes Hosiery nine in Winston-Salem. The loss to the Fries team was attributed to the extremely cold weather which kept the boys from playing their best game. The local team outplayed and out-hit the Winston team but two costly errors in the outfield cost them the game.

Saturday the team will meet the Fries team here at Chatham Park at 3 o'clock and they will be out for revenge.

The public is invited to attend. There will be no gate fee.

"AMERICAN"

by Fostoria

GIVE IT OR KEEP IT
BUT CERTAINLY GET IT

Colonial homes are complemented by Fostoria's "American" crystal. Modern homes like it, too. And gift lists minus "American" seem neglected.

For "American" is an authentic reproduction of that traditional design which marked the cozy simplicity of early New England life. Indeed, no crystal pattern is more exquisitely beautiful or so moderately priced... none with a more romantic past or such a brilliant future.

We have innumerable "American" pieces for your selection. Some of these are as little as 50c each. Or a complete dinner service is available, perfectly satisfactory for serving all kinds of hot foods and drinks.

We invite you to see our Fostoria Displays in the Crystal Shop
