

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

Mrs. V. J. Myrick was hostess to the Methodist Missionary circle No. 2 last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Tom Evans led the program. The business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. John W. Crawford. The circle presented Mrs. Crawford a nice gift in appreciation of her efficient leadership, with regrets that she intends to move, with her family, to Yadkinville, where

Mr. Crawford will take over the duties of county farm agent.

Mrs. Rosa Booker and Miss Elizabeth Booker returned home last week from a visit to Mrs. Olivia Palmer at Salem, Mr. W. G. Booker's family at Greensboro, Mr. A. G. McCormick's family at Winston-Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thore at Rockford.

Mrs. F. F. Riggs had as dinner guests Friday her sister, Mrs. Sam Knowles, of Charlotte, Misses Lela and Nonie Gordon, of Pilot Mountain, and Mr. Roger Cristy, of Emory and Henry College, Va. Miss Lela Gordon and Mr. Roger Cristy were married Saturday at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. I. M. Gordon at Pilot Mountain, and left immediately for a honeymoon vacation.

Our town was saddened Sunday afternoon with the news of the untimely death of Mr. Will Poyner, of Moyack. Mr. Poyner married Miss Margaret Freeman, of Dobson, some twelve years ago, daughter of the late R. C. Freeman and Mrs. Freeman, who survives with two children, Billy and Dicky Poyner. Mrs. Maude Freeman left Sunday with other relatives to attend the funeral at Moyack.

Rev. Richard West preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning, using as his text, "Failure of Fidelity."

Misses Julia and Mazie Comer spent Sunday with their father, Mr. W. S. Comer, honoring him on "Father's Day."

Miss Elizabeth Freeman, of Raleigh, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Freeman.

Miss Margaret Sparger spent several days last week with her grandmother, Mrs. Wagoner, at Sparta, returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roby Marion and baby, Elizabeth, visited relatives at Siloam, for the week-end.

Mr. V. J. Myrick with his troop of Boy Scouts spent Saturday and Sunday on a camping trip among the mountains.

Mrs. Frank Freeman left Sunday for a visit to her parents at Reidsville.

Miss Fredna Armfield, of Low Gap, spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Joe Folger. Dr. and Mrs. Folger also had as guests last week Mrs. C. L. Schooley and son, Jack, of Charlottesville, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Boyer, of Fries, Va.

Mrs. W. G. Booker and children, of Greensboro, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Parks, of Dobson, and will leave soon for Columbia University, N. Y., for a session of summer school. Mr. Booker and children will join her at the conclusion of her school term, and attend the Fair.

BOONVILLE

Y.W.A. Meets With Mrs. Steelman. The Y. W. A. of the Boonville Baptist church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Arlie Steelman. Mrs. Katherine Jones and Mrs. Roy Reece were joint hostesses for the group. The meeting celebrated the first anniversary of the Y. W. A. organization of the local church. Special guests for the occasion were the Boonville W. M. U. members and Rev. J. P. Davis. The Y. W. A. organization was sponsored by the W. M. U.

A very fitting program for the first anniversary observance was rendered. The general topic was "The Ideals of the Young Woman's Auxiliary." "O Zion Haste" was sung as the opening hymn. Mrs. Watt Deal rendered the devotional, after which Mrs. Arlie Steelman welcomed the guests.

A regular business session was held with the president, Miss Katherine Jones, in charge. Miss Dorothy Coram was program leader for the night. Others included on the program and the parts they discussed follow: Mrs. Allan Jessup, "Prayer and Study of God's Word"; Mrs. Thad M. Reece, "Study of God's Work in His World and the Advancement of His Kingdom"; Mrs. Roy Reece, "Personal Service"; Miss Lillian Church, "Stewardship"; Miss Katherine Jones, "How to Make Our Y.W.A. an A-1 Organization"; Dorothy Coram, "Conclusion"; and closing prayer by Rev. J. P. Davis.

At the conclusion, a cake with one lighted candle representing the first birthday of the organization, was brought into the room by Mrs. Arlie Steelman. The hostesses then served Russian tea and cake.

The July meeting will be held at the home of Miss Katherine Jones with Mrs. Watt Deal as hostess to the group.

Boonville Book Club Meets with Mrs. Frye. The Boonville Book Club met at the home of Mrs. Randolph Frye for its regular June meeting. Mrs. Frye and Miss Merlie Speer were joint hostesses to the group.

A program on music and great musicians was rendered by various members of the club. Miss Joy Riden, a visitor, contributed a solo to the night's entertainment.

Present for the occasion were the following visitors: Mrs. John D. Mock, Mrs. Everett Hurt, and Miss Joy Riden. Members present were Mesdames Ralph Fletcher, J. R. Walker, Paul Warden, J. Wade Shore, Roy Reece, T. L. Hayes, Marion Speas, C. W. Riden, Watt Deal, Frank Woodhouse, Hilton Jones, D. H. Craver and Misses Grace Hayes, Betty Hendricks and Merlie Speer.

Speer Family Hold Reunion. The family of Mrs. Saline Speer met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Mottsinger Sunday for a reunion and a picnic dinner. Only the immediate family of Mrs. Speer and a few friends were present.

The occasion was prompted by the arrival Saturday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Speer and son, Edd, Jr., from Dallas, Texas, who were en route to the World's Fair in New York. Mr. Speer is the youngest son of Mrs. Salina Speer, who celebrated her 92nd birthday last February.

An old time picnic dinner was served under the large shade trees on the lawn of the Mottsinger home after which a series of pictures were made of various family groups.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Speer, Edd Speer, Jr., and Jack Storey, of Dallas, Texas; Felix Speer, of Raleigh; Miss Mattie Mottsinger and Walter Mottsinger, of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Speer and Paul, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Speer and family, Mary, Albert and James, Miss Merlie Speer, Edward Coram, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan C. Dobbins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Woodhouse, Misses Annette and Mary Kate Woodhouse, Misses Helen and Jane Doub, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Mottsinger and family, Rowan, J. Lee and Eugene Mottsinger, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Mottsinger, Mrs. Olivia Smith and son, Harvey, all of Boonville. Mrs. Salina Speer could not be present due to a condition of health which has kept her confined to her bed for the past several months.

Miss Nancy Whitley, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vaden Whitley, of Zebulon, is spending several days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Fleming.

Mr. Felix Speer, of Raleigh, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Speer. Mr. Speer is doing graduate work at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Jones, of Mt. Airy, visited Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Coram, Sunday.

Miss Grace Hayes has returned from a trip to the World's Fair in New York.

E. P. Speer and family, of Dallas, Texas, visited Mr. Speer's mother, Mrs. Salina Speer, and his brother, Aaron Speer, and sisters, Miss Merlie Speer, Mrs. Lee Mottsinger and Mrs. N. C. Dobbins the past week-end. They left here Monday for the World's Fair in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Martin and family, of Dinuba, Calif., are visiting relatives and friends in East Bend and surrounding communities for several days. They plan to return to California around the fifth of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simmons, of Pilot Mountain, visited Mrs. Simmons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Norman, the past week-end.

Mrs. Henry Matthews, of Lake View, is visiting relatives here for a few weeks.

Mrs. W. E. Brooks will return next Saturday from a visit of several weeks with her parents near Richmond, Va.

The Boonville Senior Department of the B. T. U. gave a demonstration program at Swaim's Knob Baptist church last Sunday night for the purpose of organizing a B. T. U. at that church. Those taking part in the program were G. H. Hudler, Watt Deal, Albert and James Speer, Mary Speer and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jessup.

Rev. John S. McGee, of Kernersville, is making headquarters

CYCLE

Rev. E. K. Wooten filled his regular appointment at Oak Grove Saturday and Sunday. A large crowd attended.

Mrs. Lillie Bell visited her mother Monday who has been ill for several days. Mrs. John Bates, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Riley visited Mrs. Riley's parents in Ashland Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Howard attended the funeral of Mr. Howard's aunt, Mrs. Alice Messick, in Winston-Salem Monday.

The Oak Grove quartet attended the singing at Pleasant Home church Sunday.

Mr. Clyde West and little daughter, Mary Lue, of Winston-

Salem, were the Sunday guests of Mr. West's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim West.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Holcomb, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with Mrs. Holcomb's sister, Mrs. Riley Ashburn, and Mr. Ashburn.

Miss Lucille VanHoy is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd VanHoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Bilson Castevens and daughter, Miss Annie Pearl, were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. Casteven's son, Mr. Nelson Castevens, and Mrs. Castevens.

HomeLike

Mrs. Neerby—Your house seems so home-like.

Mrs. Grabley—Thanks! Do you really think so?

Mrs. Neerby—Yes, you've got so many of my cooking utensils borrowed that your kitchen seems more natural to me than my own.
