Mrs. Biggs Is Hostess to Garden Club Thursday

Mrs. M. A. Biggs was hostess to the Yadkin Valley Garden club at her home on West Main street Thursday afternoon with eleven members present.

Mrs. Mason Lillard, president of the club, presided over the meeting and the program was in charge of Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, her subject being "Sky Gardens of Rockefeller Center." Mrs. Atkinson gave the introductory paper and Mrs. H. P. Graham and Mrs. J. F. Hendren each gave a paper with further description of the magnificent gardens.

A sweet course was served at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. Steelman Is Hostess at Boonville

Mrs. Arlie Steelman entertained at a delightful party at her home at Boonville Tuesday evening to honor her guests, Misses Pauline and Dorothy Cockerham, of Mountain Park. Summer flowers were used throughout the home.

Six tables were arranged in the living room for Chinese checkers. The high score prize was awarded Miss Nellie Martin at the conclusion of the play. Other games and contests were enjoyed, with the prize in these also going to Miss Martin.

At the conclusion of the game a prettily appointed collation was served.

Ninety-fourth Birthday of Edd Hemric Is Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. George Hemric entertained with a dinner Sunday in celebration of the 94th birthday anniversary of Edd Hemric, father of Mr. Hemric. Rev. Conrad Cochran offered the invocation and made a few brief remarks prior to the dinner. The tables, bountifully laden, were placed under huge trees on the spacious lawn. The honor guest's table was designated by a handsomely decorated three-tier birthday cake, topped with 94 gleaming candles. All of the children of Mr. Hemric were present with the exception of one son, Harrison Hemric. In addition to the family a host of friends also attended the dinner.

Miss Powell Is Bride of Thomas Hunt Mackie

Announcements as follows have been received with cordial interest by friends here: "Mrs. Minnie Douthit Powell announces the marriage of her daughter, Lavinia, to Mr. Thomas Hunt Mackie, Saturday, June 24, 1939, Mount Airy, North Carolina."

Mrs. Mackie is well known throughout this section of the state and has many friends here where she has frequently visited her sister, Mrs. Frank Bivins, the former Miss Mary Leslie Powell.

Mr. Mackie, a native of Yadkinville and a former resident of Elkin, is also well known throughout this section. He is associated with the Shell Oil company.

Following a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Mackie will reside in Mount Airy.

Misses Morrison and Gilliam Hostesses At Lovely Party

Misses Louise Morrison and Norma Gilliam entertained at a lovely party at the former's home near Jonesville, last Saturday evening, honoring Miss Morrison's sister, Miss Pauline Morrison, on her birthday anniversary.

The hall and reception rooms were beautifully decorated with garden flowers. In the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served, the table was lovely, having for its central decoration the birthday cake, topped with candles in pink holders. Tall candles in holders were placed on the table.

Twenty-five or more young people were present to enjoy the delightful hospitality.

Winners in the games and contests were Miss Morrison, the honoree, Miss Mary Nell Gray and Noah Settle.

The honoree was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Lucy Elizabeth Brendle Is Bride of W. G. Hinshaw

Boonville Baptist church was the setting Saturday evening for a wedding when Miss Lucy Elizabeth Brendle became the bride of Wendell Garfield Hinshaw. The vows were spoken at 8:30 o'clock before the bride's pastor, Rev. James P. Davis, and a throng of relatives and friends. The ring ceremony was used.

The church chancel was banked with evergreens and white flowers, which formed a background for the ceremony. This background was enhanced with branched floor candelabra holding white cathedral candles and large baskets of Easter lilies. Clusters of gladioli tied with white satin ribbon marked the pews for relatives and special guests.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Ted Palmer, pianist and Miss

Sarah Easterling and Miss Rebecca Nifong, soloists, presented the following program of music: "Evening Star" from Tannhauser, (Wagner) Miss Palmer; "My Heart at Thy Voice" (Saint Saens) Miss Palmer; "O Promise Me" (DeKoven) Miss Nifong; "Because" (d'Hardelot) Miss Nifong; "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" (Sults) a duet by Miss Nifong and Miss Easterling; "I Love You Truly (Bond) Miss Nifong and Miss Easterling. The Bridal March from Lohengrin was used as the processional and the Wedding March from Midsummer Night's Dream, was used as the recessional.

The groomsmen were: William J. Cook of Winston-Salem, Jesse W. Wooten of Yadkinville, G. R. Stinson of Boonville and Ford P. Brendle of Winston-Salem. Wesley L. Hinshaw attended his brother as best man.

The four bridesmaids were: Miss Mabel Hinshaw of Winston-Salem, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Emily Brendle and Mrs. William J. Cook, sisters of the bride, Mrs. L. E. Copple, Jr., of Long Island, N. Y. They wore identical dresses of aqua net fashioned with shirred bodice and puffed sleeves. They carried arm bouquets of spring flowers tied with aqua satin ribbons.

Miss Cleo Brendle, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink net dress the same style of the bridesmaids.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, John E. Brendle. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom, attended by his brother, Wesley Hinshaw. The bride's gown was ivory satin with chantilly lace collar and yoke and inset of chantilly lace in the leg-of-mutton sleeves. The long train was inserted with the lace. Her only ornament was a pearl cluster at the neckline of her gown. Her veil was full length bridal illusion, caught to the head with a coronet of orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of Calla lilies tied with white satin ribbon.

The bride's mother wore an orchid lace dress. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. Hinshaw, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy lace dress. Her corsage was of pink rose buds.

After the ceremony an informal reception was given by the bride's parents. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hinshaw left for a honeymoon.

For traveling Mrs. Hinshaw wore a sheer navy crepe suit with white embroidered organdy blouse and navy accessories. Her hat was a Schiaparelli model of navy straw with veil trim. Her corsage was gardenias.

Mrs. Wendell Hinshaw is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brendle of Boonville. Mr. Hinshaw is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinshaw of Boonville.
