Presbyterian Notes

There is a Daily Vacation Bible school in progress at the Presbyterian church this week and next week. These classes take in the ages from four to 14. More than 40 children have already registered for this work.

Miss Maxie Weaver, of Lansing, is in charge of this work. Miss Weaver is a teacher with much experience in Daily Vacation church school work.

We will be glad to have boys and girls register that would like to attend. The hours are from 9 to 11:30, and the school will be open every day except Saturday until July 7. On that date there will be a commencement at which time the public will be invited to attend.

The Sunday service, which is usually held in the morning, will be held next Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

On the first Sunday of each month the service will be changed from the morning to the 8:00 o'clock hour so that the pastor can take this service.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

PLEASANT HILL

Rev. I. W. Vestal filled his regular appointment here Sunday. Pauline Rogers spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Gray Matthews, of Winston-Salem.

Misses Mary Lyons and Ruth Ray are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Woodruff of Cherrylane.

Messrs Fred Yarborough and Edgar Transou and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morrison of this community attended the auto races at Salisbury Sunday.

Rev. Richard Day will conduct services here Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cothren spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Newt Bauguess of North Wilkesboro.

The Rangers, a famous quartette which broadcasts each morning from WBT, Charlotte, will be at the Pleasant Hill school Thursday, June 29.

Mr. Odell Couch, teacher of the intermediate boys, entertained his class Saturday evening, with an ice cream supper. The class had a very enjoyable time.

We regret to note that we have several on the sick list this week: Mrs. Bessie Gilliam, Mrs. Cora Day, Misses Bernice Wellborn, Ruby Day, a patient in High Chatham Memorial hospital, Marie Newman, Mr. Eugene Money and Mr. Phoebe Layell.

Messrs. Clyde, Paul and Charlie Couch spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Eastern North Carolina and South Carolina, on business.

A very beautiful and entertaining program was given at Pleasant Hill church Sunday night by the Cradle Roll Department. Mrs. Odell Couch, superintendent of the department, and Mrs. David Darnell, associate superintendent, were in charge of the program.

Two short plays were given, "This Little Child of Thine," and "For Baby's Sake," recitations, and the history of the Cradle Roll Department were also given. Four copies of the history were presented to the following people: Rev. I. W. Vestal, pastor of the church; Mr. Oscar Gentry, superintendent of the Sunday school; Rev. David W. Day, retiring superintendent, and Mrs. David Darnell. Two glass baskets of cut flowers were presented to the oldest mother present and the youngest mother, the former being Mrs. Tildia Rogers and the latter Mrs. Wellborn Settle. The youngest baby present was Thomas Eugene Couch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Couch, who was placed in the bassinette as the pianist played softly, "Does Jesus Care." Each cradle roll child was given a rose bud by the superintendent and her associate.

It would take 7,000,000 ordinary pins to weigh a ton.

Colonel Bain Takes Command!

Brewers and Distributors Inaugurate North Carolina "Clean-Up or Close-Up" Campaign. State and Local Enforcement Heads Endorse Plan.

IN NORTH CAROLINA, as in many other states, a few retail beer outlets which flout the law, often bring discredit upon the entire business.

Brewers and distributors are convinced that this business can and should always be conducted properly and in full conformity with the law, and they are determined that this shall be the case in North Carolina.

Consequently, we, the undersigned, recently formed the Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee which, acting in close cooperation with state and local enforcement bodies, has launched a vigorous cooperative campaign to rid the state of those few beer outlets which persist in disregarding both the law and the public.

In plain words, we refuse any longer to tolerate outlets which use their beer licenses as a "cover-up" for flagrant bootlegging operations; which sell to minors or otherwise violate the law and their license privileges. With the brewers, our Committee includes wholesalers who distribute approximately ninety per cent of the beer sold in North Carolina. And we also have the wholehearted support of the large majority of our respectable and law-abiding retailers. Furthermore, duly constituted enforcement officials have approved our objectives and promised their help. And ACTION is certain now that Attorney General McMullan has declared it is the duty of municipal and county boards, on request for revocation of malt beverage licenses, to hold hearings.

Colonel Edgar H. Bain, of Goldsboro, N. C., has been appointed by the Committee to direct its activities.

"Good Conduct" Committees of local beer distributors, each headed by a chairman, have been set up in ten districts of the state for close cooperation with law enforcement officers, and with our own Executive Committee, in eradicating objectionable places of business.

Established on a permanent basis, our Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee seeks to protect the legitimate beer business in North Carolina from the depredations of a small and irresponsible minority, and to perform a worthwhile service to the public. The Committee is sponsored by the United Brewers Industrial Foundation, a national organization of brewers.

The Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee is convinced that its work is in the public interest. Therefore, we respectfully solicit your cooperation with our efforts.

COL. EDGAR H. BAIN
State Director

Colonel Bain recently resigned from the State Senate to take over the directorship of our Committee. He is a World War veteran, decorated with the Distinguished Service Cross and the Silver Star. An official of the U. S. Army Reserve Officers Corps, he is well-known throughout the State as a militant crusader for law enforcement.
