Attorney Earl James, of Elkin, addressed the Boonville Baptist Sunday school officers and teachers at their regular monthly session Monday night. Mr. James made an inspiring talk on Sunday school work, taking as his subject, "Ye Shall Be My Witnesses." In his talk Mr. James, who is a well known lawyer, gave several qualities that he wanted in a case witness and several things that he didn't want. He closely connected the good court witness with the Sunday school teacher who does a fine job of her work as one of God's witnesses.

Some of the things a good witness or a Sunday school teacher must possess, according to Mr. James, are the following: (1) Be on time; (2) Be serious minded; (3) Be informed and stand up under opposition; (4) To know one witnessing for; (5) To have a good life and character to back up his testimony.
