COOL SPRINGS

Hot and dry in our community now! Threshers are coming in today. It's hard to choose between wishing for a shower and wishing the threshers would soon be gone.

Our Sunday school is still doing fine, although the revival meetings are encroaching slightly. Many of the Cool Springs young people attended the service at Benham Sunday evening.

The Cool Springs quartette sang at the Blackburn reunion near Ronda Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hasten Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Carmel Tucker and a number of friends visited Mr. and Mrs. Luther Luffman of the Pleasant Ridge community Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Newman, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holbrook visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holbrook Sunday.

Cool Springs folks are tired of building a baptismal pool each year, so they have decided to build one permanent. The site will be the same as before, and is being given by Mr. M. L. Pettyjohn and son, Eugene. Several farmers of the community gave the time and teams to haul sand and gravel for the work, and others will donate cement and give their aid in finishing the task.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burton, Miss Maxine Holbrook and Mr. Burton's mother, of Winston-Salem, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Holbrook Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pettyjohn and children, Wanda and Shirley, spent the week-end the guests of Mr. Pettyjohn's brother, in Winston-Salem.

Don't forget the fifth Sunday singing convention is "Coming Home" to Cool Springs this time. Join the crowd and be here, too.
