Big "Cat"
The biggest catfish a lot of people have even seen was exhibited in front of the Basketeria, local grocery store, here last Friday. The fish, pictured above in a tank of water, measured 40 inches in length and weighed 31 pounds. It was about 12 inches wide across the head. Caught by hook in New River by someone whose name was not learned, the fish was sent here by automobile, having been wrapped in wet burlap sacks. It appeared none the worse for wear after its long trip out of water. Saturday the fish was killed and its meat distributed to various people for a catfish feast.—(Tribune Photo.)
