“Welcome Home, Dad”

Comes to Sydner-Spahnour from Hickory; to Open New Shoe Department

TO BE ON MAIN FLOOR

Jimmie Campbell, who has been with The Spahnour Co., of Hickory, for a number of years, being connected with the shoe department, has been transferred to Elkin, where he will act as assistant manager of Sydner-Spahnour, E. S. Spahnour, manager of the local store, announced Tuesday.

Mr. Campbell will have charge of a new ladies' shoe department to be opened on the main floor in the near future. He is an expert shoe man, having had many years experience in the business. Sydner-Spahnour, in inaugurating the new shoe department, is discontinuing their piece goods department on the main floor. However, the piece goods department in the basement store is to be enlarged and remodeled, and all piece goods, patterns and notions will be found there in large variety, it was said.

The new shoe department will carry only nationally advertised brands, which will be exclusive with Spahnour's. Brands to be carried include Vitality, Natural Poise, Connie and Paris Fashion, all high quality and well-known products.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and their small son have been in Elkin for several days and are at home on North Bridge street. Mr. Campbell is a brother of Lefty Campbell, formerly with the Duke Power Company here, but now located at Mooresville.

Announcement of the opening of the new shoe department will be made at an early date.
