Sunshine Philathea Class Meets

The Sunshine Philathea class of the Sunday school of the Elkin Valley Baptist church met at the home of Miss Lillian Johnson Friday evening, with Miss Lula Johnson associate hostess. Miss Lula Johnson conducted the devotionals and Miss Bertice Bates, class president, was in charge of the business meeting. The program consisted of favorite Bible quotations by the members.

During a pleasant social hour the hostesses served tempting refreshments. Eleven class members and two visitors, Misses Pauline and Leona Ball of Hickory, guests of Miss Lula Johnson, attended the meeting.

Cockerham-Prevette

Announcement is made today by the bride's parents of the marriage of Miss Ola Jean Cockerham, of this city, and Roy Lee Prevette, of Elkin and North Wilkesboro. The marriage was solemnized in Independence, Va., August 12, with Rev. F. L. Funk officiating.

For her marriage the bride wore a costume suit of teal blue with accessories of white. Her flowers were white carnations and valley lilies.

Mrs. Prevette is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cockerham, of this city, and is a member of the sales force at McDaniel's department store. She attended Elkin high school.

Mr. Prevette is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Prevette, of North Wilkesboro, and was educated there. He is the owner and operator of Dock's Tavern.

The young couple will make their home in Jonesville.

They were accompanied to Virginia by Miss Mary Lou Holloman and Charlie Causey, who were the only witnesses to the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Folger Entertain at Bridge-Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Folger entertained at a bridge-dinner at their home on Gwyn avenue Friday evening, having as guests members of the Friday Bridge club.

Upon the arrival of the guests a beautifully appointed dinner was served. Covers were laid for eight. The table was centered with a graceful bouquet of pink garden flowers. Pink candles in crystal holders were placed beside each plate.

Bridge was played at two tables during the evening, with scoring honors going to Mrs. James Booher and Clyde Eller at the conclusion of the play.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Folger were: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Eller, Mr. and Mrs. James Booher and Mrs. Hugh Parks.
