

URGED TO FILE NOW FOR LOAN

Tenants Should Get Their Requests in Early, Pickle Points Out

OFFICIALS AT MEETING

C. O. Pickle, County Farm Security Administration Supervisor, urges farmers wishing to take advantage of the Tenant Purchase Loan Service to file their applications immediately. Mr. Pickle said that much interest had been shown in the service given under the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, which was given to Surry and Yadkin counties this year for the first time.

Applications have been coming in to the Farm Security Administration office, which is located at Dobson, since June, and they will continue to be accepted, but early filing of applications is urged by the County Supervisor.

Last week C. O. Pickle, County Supervisor, C. C. Pratt, assistant county R. C. supervisor and Miss Linda L. Bailey, home management supervisor and the county tenant purchase committee attended a meeting at Statesville for the purpose of receiving instructions on the Tenant Purchase work.

The members of the Surry committee are: John Austin Tilley, Mount Airy, route 1; John Alex Long, Dobson, route 1; and Robert Burrus, Rockford, route 1.

The Yadkin committee is composed of Sidney W. Vestal, Yadkinville; William T. Steelman, Yadkinville and Charles E. Hartman, Yadkinville.

DEMONSTRATION MEET TO BE HELD FRIDAY

The Surry County Home Demonstration Council will meet at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in Dobson. Mrs. Grace Pope Brown, county home demonstration agent, requests that all officers and project leaders be present.

The purpose of the meeting is to make plans for the coming year. During the meeting a score card will be made and will be used by the clubs as a guide for the year 1940.

The following clubs are to be represented: Dobson, Salem Fork, Mountain Park, Little Richmond, Rockford, Siloam, Pilot Mountain, Westfield, White Sulphur Springs, Franklin, Beulah, White Plains and Union Cross.

Mrs. Paul Brown, of Devotion, council president, will preside.

YADKIN COURT IS ADJOURNED

Docket Almost Cleared of Minor Cases After a Busy Week

ARMSTRONG WAS JURIST

Yadkinville, Aug. 30.—Special.—Yadkin county superior court adjourned here late Friday afternoon at the close of the D. Holcomb case. The docket was almost cleared of minor cases during a busy week. Judge Frank Armstrong has been complimented on every side for his fairness to all defendants and court officials. The grand jury passed a resolution complimenting him on his work here and the assistance he gave them.

Luther Hutchens, violation of prohibition laws, had his sentence changed from six months on road to a fine of $100 and costs.

Thomas J. Mills, reckless driving, fined $25 and costs, sentenced to 6 months on roads, suspended. Drivers license revoked for six months.

Charles Gilmer Brown, reckless driving, $25 and costs, driving intoxicated, $50 and costs, six months suspended in one case and 12 months suspended in another.

Vera Ward and Louise Dowell, negroes, vagrancy, 30 days in jail, assigned to work as the commissioners direct.

Luther and David Royal, violating prohibition law, not guilty. Otis Shore, driving drunk, 60 days on roads. Driving license revoked 2 years.

Grover Transou, driving drunk, eight months on roads, suspended on payment of $75 and costs. License revoked two years.

Pete Dudley, reckless driving, 90 days on roads.

Buster Gray, vagrancy, not guilty.

Edwin Evans, rape, not guilty; abandonment, two years on roads or pay wife $3 per week.

Roy Lindsey, Yadkinville negro, driving drunk, 60 days on roads.

Jim Allen, driving drunk, 60 days on roads, license revoked for two years.

Ben Gregory, driving drunk, 60 days on roads, license revoked for two years.

Bruce Freeman, driving drunk, 60 days on roads suspended on payment of $50 and costs. License revoked two years.

Defendants who had two cases or those who had previously been called and failed, fared rather badly in Judge Armstrong's court but his fair and impartial decisions won favor from all.

GREENE-GRAY REUNION TO BE HELD SEPT. 10th

The annual reunion of the Greene and Gray families will be held on the campus of the Clingman school, three miles southeast of Ronda, Sunday, September 10. All relatives, friends and acquaintances of the two families are cordially invited to be present.

BOY KILLED BY FAIR PLANS ARE PUSHED

Grady Rex Underwood, Age 6, Dies Instantly in Accident Tuesday

FRED HOBSON IS DRIVER

Grady Rex Underwood, 6, was instantly killed Tuesday morning 3 miles south of Yadkinville on Courtney highway, when struck by a car driven by Fred C. Hobson, superintendent of Yadkin county schools. The accident is said to have been unavoidable. The young boy was visiting the Marshall Reavis family, relatives, at the old Rev. Stanley May home.

The boy, with two companions, had two tobacco slides in which tobacco is hauled from the field to the barn and were going north when the boy suddenly jumped from the slide and darted across the highway in the path of the oncoming car, according to the two other boys, Jim Reavis, 16, and Loyd Smith, 15.

Skid marks show on the highway for 200 feet, 100 feet before he hit the boy and 100 afterwards. The body was carried on the bumper for about 90 feet. The boy received a badly lacerated scalp on both sides, each leg broken above the knees, a bad chest injury and bruises over most of the body.

Acting Coroner W. E. Rutledge empaneled a jury, viewed the scene and the body and adjourned until a later date. The jury is composed of Charlie Vestal, James Amburn, C. R. Groce, Grant Vestal, M. W. Mackie and John Mason.

The boy is a son of Webb Underwood and Delia Whitaker Underwood. He was born at Center April 4, 1933. He was to enter school in two weeks. He is survived by his parents, two brothers, Donald and Carl, three sisters, Nettie and Sallie Lou of the home and Mrs. Vera Long of Center. Also his grandmother, Mrs. Janie Whitaker of Center.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock at Center Methodist church, with Rev. J. H. Greene, the pastor, and Rev. R. L. Speer, in charge. Burial will follow in the church cemetery. The family states that the casket will not be opened at the church.

TENNESSEE YOUTH HURT IN ACCIDENT

Fern Senirley, 23, of Maryville, Tenn., is in the hospital here suffering from serious injuries sustained when he accidentally stepped from a trailer into the opening between the trailer and a heavy truck about midnight Monday. The accident occurred on the Elkin-Mt. Airy road. The boy was brought to the hospital immediately. Examination disclosed a badly crushed leg, which had to be amputated at the knee, and painful flesh abrasions about the body.

The truck-trailer was the property of Lambert Bros., of Knoxville, Tenn., and was loaded with rock crusher machinery. Young Senirley had only been in the employ of the company about a week.
