Dutch Picnic and Theatre Party Monday Evening

Members of the younger set enjoyed a Dutch supper and theatre party Monday evening. About twenty members of the high school set were invited.

Dorcas Class Enjoys Picnic Tuesday Evening

Members of the Dorcas class of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church and their families enjoyed a picnic supper Tuesday evening at the picnic ground at the gymnasium. A bountiful supper was served. Games were also enjoyed during the evening. Approximately twenty-eight enjoyed the outing.

Mrs. Lewis Honors Mrs. Winkler at Farewell Party

Mrs. Glenn Lewis was hostess at a delightful dessert-bridge at her home on Church street Tuesday evening, complimenting Mrs. J. C. Winkler, who left Wednesday for North Wilkesboro to make her home. Mixed garden flowers were used in the living room, where three tables were placed for the games. The high score award went to Mrs. H. G. York at the conclusion of the play and the runner-up prize went to Mrs. Ted Brown. Mrs. Winkler was given a lovely gift.

Methodist Circles to Meet Monday

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the following homes:

Circle number one with Mrs. W. E. Paul on Terrace Avenue, with Mrs. J. F. Hendren associate hostess; number two with Mrs. R. C. Freeman on Church street, and number three with Mrs. C. O. Garland on Gwyn Avenue, with Mrs. H. P. Graham associate hostess.

All members are cordially invited to attend.

Misses Myers Entertain at Scavenger Hunt

Misses Clyde and Madeline Myers entertained about thirty-five members of the high school set at a scavenger hunt at their home on Gwyn avenue Tuesday evening. The guests were invited for eight o'clock and upon their arrival were given lists for the hunt. When the reassembled at ten o'clock prizes were awarded Miss Helen Caudill, Miss Betty Lou Evans, Robert Nick's and Bill Reece for presenting the most accurate number of the requirements.

Dancing was also enjoyed during the evening.

Refreshments, consisting of punch, cookies and salted nuts, were served.

Mrs. Somers Entertains at Club Meeting Thursday

Mrs. A. B. Somers entertained members of her bridge club at a delightful bridge-luncheon at Hotel Elkin Thursday. Summer flowers were arranged in an attractive centerpiece on the lunch-table, where covers were placed for the following club members: Mesdames Marion Allen, Charles G. Ashby, Paul Gwyn, Raymond Chatham, Errol Hayes, J. R. Poindexter and Mrs. Richard G. Chatham. Miss Jane Hopkins, of Titusville, Pa., guest of Mrs. Richard G. Chatham, was the only visitor.

In the bridge progressions during the afternoon the club award for high score went to Mrs. Charles G. Ashby. Miss Hopkins was given a lovely remembrance.

Sarah Glenn Boyles Celebrates Fourth Birthday with Party

Honoring her little daughter, Sarah Glenn, on her fourth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Max Boyles entertained at an enjoyable party Monday afternoon at her home on Gwyn avenue. The guest list included twenty-five youngsters of a similar age. A number of outdoor games were enjoyed.

In the dining room, where the guests were invited for refreshments, a gala scene was arranged. The table was centered with a handsomely decorated cake, emphasizing the chosen colors of pink and white.

Individual cakes and ices were served the little guests and they were given favors of balls and balloons.

Mrs. Boyles was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Paul Price and Miss Betty Lou Evans.

Brewer Children Feted at Picnic Wednesday

Jimmy Black, of York, S. C., who has been spending the summer here with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Smith, the latter his aunt, was host at a weiner roast and picnic at the Smith home Wednesday evening, to honor Lucy and Charles, Jr., Brewer, who left the latter part of the week for Henderson, with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brewer, to make their home.

The supper was served on the picnic grounds in the rear of the Smith home. Outdoor games were also enjoyed during the evening.

The guest list included Lucy and Charles, Jr., Brewer, honor guests, Cynthia Allen and her guest, Phyllis Johnson, of Newton, Betty Chatham, Peyton Smith, Charles Dockery, Edward Wall and Tommy Cooley.

Home Economics Teachers and School Principals Meet

An all-day meeting of Surry county vocational home economics teachers and schools principals was held at the high school building here Tuesday. This was the first of a series of meetings to be held in the county throughout the week. Miss Allen, field supervisor of W. C. U. N. C., Greensboro, was a special guest at the meeting.

At 4 o'clock a two-course collation was served by Miss Mary Holland, local teacher of home economics, in the home economics room. Covers were placed for Miss Clara Freeman, of Dobson; Miss Jo Swanson, of Mt. Airy; Mrs. Conrad Gentry and J. Sam Gentry, of Mountain Park, J. Mark McAdams and Miss Holland, Miss Holland was assisted in entertaining by Misses Peggy Royall, Louise Laffoon and Rosamond Neaves, home economics students.

Miss Abernethy Speaks to Garden Club at Meeting Thursday

Meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. G. Click on Circle Court, members of the Yadkin Valley Garden club were privileged to hear Dr. Ethel Abernethy, who recently returned from a European tour, in a talk on the women of the countries of England, Switzerland, France, Germany, Holland and Belgium, and of their accomplishments. Miss Abernethy also spoke on the gardens of these countries, and exhibited pictures of some of the most interesting places. Her talk was highly enjoyed. Miss Abernethy was introduced by Mrs. Mason Lillard, president of the club.

During a social hour a beautifully appointed salad course, with numerous accessories, was served.

Club members attending were: Mesdames Mason Lillard, E. F. McNeer, H. P. Graham, W. R. Wellborn, J. F. Hendren, J. H. Beeson, George Royall, W. W. Whitaker and M. A. Biggs.

Calloway-Melton
A recent wedding of interest is that of Miss Sarah Edna Calloway, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Calloway of Clingman and Fred Melton of Jonesville Route 1, which was solemnized at Independence, Va., Saturday morning August 26. Rev. Mr. Pool performed the ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. J. L. Powers of Elkin.

The bride is very popular and attractive. She attended high school at Ronda.

The bridegroom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Melton of Jonesville, Route 1. He was a member of the graduation class of '37 at Ronda high school. After completing his high school work he took a special course in electrical engineering at Coney's Electrical Engineering School in Illinois, and now holds a position with the Harris Electric Co., of Elkin.

The wedding party was entertained by the bride's parents at their home last Saturday for luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Melton, parents of the bridegroom, also received guests for them Sunday for dinner.

Costume Dance Is Enjoyable Affair

One of the most enjoyable of the many social affairs of the younger set during the summer, was the "Yokum Dance" given Friday evening at the gymnasium by Misses Dorothy Colhard, Amy Katherine Myers, Oleen Norman and Frances Hendren, to honor the college students who will leave soon for their respective schools. In keeping with the costumes of the guests the interior of the building represented the native land of the Yokums. Sixty members of the high school and college set were invited.

Winning honors as Daisy Mae was Miss Emily Henry, of Allendale, S. C., guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Nicks. Clyde Rudd, of Alta Vista, Va., was chosen as Lil' Abner.

Pink lemonade, wafers and all-day suckers were served during intermission.

Out-of-town guests were: Miss Jeanette Frances Bryant, of Atlanta, Miss Emily Henry, of Allendale, S. C., Clyde Rudd, of Alta Vista, Va., Talton Garland, of Oxford, and J. D. Bowman, of Morganton.
