

CLUB SPONSORS PHOTO CONTEST

T.C.U. Club to Award Prizes in Photographic Competition in Mill

OPEN TO EMPLOYEES

The T. C. U. Club of the Chatham Manufacturing company is sponsoring a photographic contest which is open to all employees of the company.

Four cash prizes will be awarded first and second place winners in two classes, namely, animate and inanimate.

Animate photos may include individuals, pets and animals and pictures of human interest; the inanimate class landscapes, industrial pictures and homes. Not more than six pictures may be submitted by each contestant.

All pictures must be submitted to members of the T. C. U. Club contest committee on or before 5 p.m., September 22. Pictures will be placed on exhibit at the club house and also at some conspicuous place in the mill.

Judges of the contest will be Walter Burgess, Alan Browning, Jr., and C. C. Poindexter.

For complete details those planning to enter should see any member of the contest committee, made up of Henry Woodruff, chairman; Hugh Salmons and Russell Burcham.
