Circle number four of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Miss Mable Sale Thursday evening, at 7:45, with Mrs. Jones Holcomb associate hostess.
All members are cordially invited to be present.

Mesdames Phillips and Booher Honor Mrs. Cox
Honoring Mrs. Eugene Cox of Atlanta, guest of Dr. and Mrs. Roland A. Glenn, Mesdames Lee Phillips and James Booher entertained at a picnic supper at their home on Gwyn Avenue Wednesday evening. The guest list included only a few friends.

Cox-Bovender
Announcement is made today of the marriage of Miss Verlie Cox, of this city, to Ephie Alten Bovender, of Booneville. The marriage was solemnized in Hillsville, Va., March 19, 1939.
Mrs. Bovender is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tyre M. Cox, of this city, and Mr. Cox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bovender, of Booneville.

Legion Auxiliary to Resume Meetings
Resuming the regular monthly meetings after a summer vacation period, the Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion will meet Monday evening at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. George Royall on Church street, with Mrs. D. C. Martin associate hostess.
All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Mills Is Hostess Friday Morning
Mrs. R. L. Mills entertained at a charming morning party Friday at her home on Circle Court. The guests were invited for 10:30 and bridge was played at three tables until one o'clock, when a beautifully appointed luncheon was served. Autumn flowers were attractively arranged throughout the home.
In the games the high score award went to Mrs. Paul Gwyn and the runner-up prize to Mrs. Rich Chatham.

Mrs. Wade Is Hostess To Round Dozen Club Friday
Mrs. L. I. Wade was hostess to members of the Round Dozen Book Club at the regular fortnightly meeting at her home on West Main street Friday evening. An ice course was served upon the arrival of the guests. During the evening rook was played at three tables. In the games the high score award went to Mrs. Fred McNeely and the runner-up prize to Mrs. J. Walter Darnell.
Miss Virginia Journey was the only guest outside of club members.

Mrs. Gwyn Is Hostess to Two-Four Club Thursday
Mrs. Paul Gwyn entertained members of the Two-Four Bridge club and several additional friends at a delightful bridge-luncheon Thursday at her home on Gwyn avenue. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and during the afternoon bridge was played at two tables. The high score award went to Miss Maude Greenwood at the close of a series of interesting progressions.
Those making up the tables were Miss Greenwood and Mesdames T. F. Cooley, Howard Hatch, D. G. Smith, Marion Allen, Richard G. Chatham and R. C. Freeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn Entertain Club at Dinner Friday
Having as guests members of the Fortnightly Bridge club, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn entertained at a delightful bridge-dinner at their home on Gwyn avenue Friday evening. Dinner was served upon the arrival of the guests. The table was artistically arranged with autumn flowers. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Allen, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spainhour, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Chatham and Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn.
Bridge was played at three tables during the evening, with scoring honors going to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers.

Misses Eidson Honor Guest at Party Saturday
Honoring their guest, Miss Louise Day, of North Wilkesboro, Misses Bernice and Mattie Lee Eidson entertained at a scavenger hunt Saturday evening at their home on Front street. The guests were invited for 8 o'clock and upon their arrival were given instructions for their activities. When the time limit expired at 10 o'clock prizes were awarded Miss Louise Day, Miss Dorothy Hampton, Bill Harris and Reggie Gambill for their skill. Games were enjoyed following the hunt.
Refreshments were served buffet style in the dining room late in the evening.
The guest list included twenty-four.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones Entertain Club
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones entertained members of their bridge club at their home last week at the regular fortnightly meeting. Three tables were placed for the games amid an attractive arrangement of autumn flowers. In the games Mrs. Ted Brown and Carl Young won the high score awards. The honor prize also went to Mr. Young.
A beautifully appointed salad course was served at the conclusion of the play.
Members attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Meed, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Campbell. Miss Hazel Phillips was a special guest.

Miss Laffoon Is Hostess At Informal Tea
As a farewell courtesy to the girls who will leave for college within the next few days, Miss Louise Laffoon entertained at an informal tea Saturday afternoon at her home on Church street.
Mixed garden flowers were used throughout the home. Misses Rosamond Neaves and Geraldine Couch presided in the dining room, where refreshments were served. Miss Peggy Royall entertained the guests with several piano numbers and Miss Eleanor Hayes gave a solo.
About fifty members of the college and high school set called between four and five o'clock. Miss Peggy Cox of Atlanta, guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Glenn, was an out-of-town guest.

Patty Rue Young Celebrates 10th Birthday Anniversary
Honoring her little daughter, Patty Rue, on her 10th birthday anniversary, Mrs. Carl Young entertained at an enjoyable party at her home on Elk Spur street Thursday afternoon from four until five o'clock. The guest list included thirty little girls, school-mates of the honoree.

The party was held in the garden at the rear of the Young home. A number of out-door games were enjoyed. The climax of the entertainment was the serving of punch from a miniature well, each guest being permitted to draw her drink from the well by means of a diminutive windlass. A pretty birthday cake, decorated pink, green and white, was also served.
Favors for the little guests were noisemakers.

Baptist Circles Join for State Mission Program
Instead of the regular monthly group meetings, the circles of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church met in joint session at the church Monday evening for a special state mission program, taught by Mrs. E. C. James. Mrs. C. N. Myers, president, presided.
Prior to the joint session, group meetings were held for the purpose of transacting routine business.
The concluding feature of the meeting was a program presented by Misses Virginia and Edwina Lawrence, Amy Catherine Myers and Miss Elizabeth Freeman, of Winston-Salem, guest of the Misses Lawrence.
The meeting was well attended, a good representation from each of the six circles being present.

Misses Alexander and Evans Entertain
Misses Frances Alexander and Betty Lou Evans entertained at a lovely party at the home of Miss Alexander on Surry Avenue, Friday evening, to honor Miss Alexander's guest, Miss Lucille Masten of Winston-Salem. Autumn flowers were used in the living room, where tables were placed for rummy. The guest list included eighteen young friends of the hostesses.
In the progressions the high score award went to Miss Mary Sale and the consolation prize to Miss Louise Laffoon. Miss Masten was given a lovely gift as guest of honor.
Out-of-town guests were the honoree and Miss Louise Day of North Wilkesboro, guest of Misses Mattie Lou and Bernice Eidson.
A tempting salad course was served during the evening.

Methodist Circles Meet Monday Afternoon
The circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the following homes:
Circle number one met with Mrs. W. E. Paul on Terrace avenue, with Mrs. J. F. Hendren associate hostess, with 11 members present. Mrs. F. W. Graham, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. The Bible study was taught by Mrs. J. Mark McAdams.
Circle number two met with Mrs. R. C. Freeman on Church street, with 13 members present. The devotionals and business session were in charge of Mrs. Freeman, circle chairman, and the Bible lesson was in charge of Mrs. George Royall.
Circle number three met with Mrs. C. O. Garland on Gwyn avenue, with 12 members present. Mrs. Joe Bivins, circle chairman, presided over the business session and conducted the devotionals and Mrs. H. C. Salmoms taught the Bible lesson.
Each hostess served refreshments during a social hour at the conclusion of the program.

Miss Margaret Harkrader Weds William Henry Harris, III
Miss Margaret Elizabeth Harkrader of Dobson, and William Henry Harris, III, of Roxboro, were married Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in a private ceremony in the First Baptist church at Wytheville, Va., with the pastor of the church officiating, using the ring ceremony.
For the processional and recessional the traditional wedding marches were played by the church organist and during the ceremony "Traumeri" was played.
For her wedding the bride wore a fall suit of blackberry wine imported woolen with touches of beaver. Her accessories were of black and her shoulder bouquet was of talsman rosebuds.
Mrs. Harris is the daughter of Lacy Loyd Harkrader or Dobson, and the late Mrs. Lelia Leakey Harkrader, and a sister of Mrs. Fletcher Harris of this city. She was graduated from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, and studied piano and voice. Since her graduation she has been a member of the Roxboro high school faculty.
Mr. Harris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Lee Harris, the former an official in the Roxboro Cotton Mills and a political leader of Roxboro, having been speaker of the House in the 1935-37 session. Mr. Harris was educated at Davidson College and is Upon their return from a honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Harris will be at home in Roxboro, where Mr. Harris is associated with his father in business.

Joyner-Reavis Wedding Solemnized Friday Evening
Of interest to friends is the marriage of Miss Flossie Bernice Joyner of Hamptonville, and Ray C. Reavis of Courtney, which was solemnized in a private ceremony Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Franklin Joyner, at Hamptonville.
The vows were heard by Rev. M. F. Reavis, of Courtney, pastor of the bridegroom. Only the immediate families of the young couple were present.
An improvised altar was arranged before the fireplace in the livingroom. White pine and fern were used as a background and the greenery was interspersed with white dahlias and cathedral candles in tall candelabra. The nuptial music was rendered ed by Mrs. Blaine Reavis, pianist, and Miss Myrtle Reavis, niece of the bridegroom, soloist. Mrs. Reavis played the traditional wedding marches as a processional and recessional and prior to the ceremony Miss Reavis sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

For her wedding the bride wore a two piece fall dress of Viking blue, with accessories of black, with the exception of her hat, which was a small toque of Viking blue. Her bouquet was of gardenias and her only ornament was a string of pearls.
Mrs. Reavis was educated at Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, and for several years has taught in the schools of Yadkin and Forsyth counties.
The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Reavis of Courtney, and is engaged in the mercantile business at Courtney.
Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a wedding trip through the Shenandoah Valley. Upon their return they will reside at Hamptonville.

Best Dress
Mrs. Chuzz: I had a lovely time at the bridge party this afternoon.
Chuzz—Did you have the best score?
Mrs. Chuzz—No, but I had the best dress.

Attorney for the victim: "Gentlemen of the jury, the driver of the car claims he was going only four miles an hour. Think of it, gentlemen! Think of the agony of my poor, unfortunate client as the car drove slowly over his body!"

JUDGE NETTLES TO PRESIDE OVER TERM

Judge Z. V. Nettles, of Asheville, will preside over a two weeks' mixed term of Surry county superior court, which will convene at Dobson on Monday, September 18.

The first week of the term will be for the trial of criminal cases while the final week will be devoted to the trial of civil cases. The court docket has not been released by clerk of the court, F. T. Lewellyn, but the release will be made within a few days. The civil docket has already been made public and includes 172 cases, many of them having been on the court records for a long time. Judge Nettles cleared a large group of old cases from the docket in July and he is expected to further clear the records at this term.

Boob—Everything that's bought goes to the buyer, doesn't it?
Simp—No. Some things, such as coal and gasoline, go up in smoke.
