"Look Like a Lady," Say New Fall Shoes

By CHARLOTTE CHIC
You'll like looking like a lady too, when you see the stunning new fall styles in shoes. Dainty, aristocratic, simply designed shoes of beautiful materials... lines that flatter ankles and legs... modest closed backs and toes... In a word, shoes are shoes again, and it's a wonderful feeling to put your feet into them and feel "shoe" instead of wide open spaces!

Designers have borrowed their ideas from the fashions of Grandma's day! Quaint cunning GAITERS (inspired by old-time "spat shoes"), are built high over the instep, of soft ELASTICIZED SUEDE or FAILLE, combined with patent leather, calfskin or alligator. They give feet "that smooth look" so important this season! V-THROAT PUMPS are also very new and popular. They are graceful, foot-slimming and ankle-flattering. Variations on pumps and step-ins predominate in types, but sophisticated high-lacing ties are seen also for day-time wear.

Many, many other styles have come from the hands of designers to make shoes this fall an adventure in everything that's new, whether they are for casual wear, sport or whatnot.

ZEPHYR

Rev. W. J. Calloway will fill his regular appointments at the Baptist church next Saturday night and Sunday morning. The public is invited to attend.

Mr. Robert Snow and Miss Fairy Dobbins, of Zephyr, left last week for Boone, where they will attend the Appalachian State Teachers College.

Mrs. Lena Dockery, of Elkin, spent last week here with Mrs. Etye Parks and family.

The revival will begin at the Methodist church next Sunday night at 8 o'clock. The services will be in charge of Rev. F. E. Howard, of Greensboro. The public has a most cordial invitation to attend.

Miss Dorothy Aehmon has returned to her home in Winston-Salem after spending a few weeks here with her grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Laster.

Mr. Harvey Parks, of Elkin, spent a short while here last Tuesday evening with relatives.

The Surry County "Bookmobile" comes to the Zephyr school every two weeks on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. It will be here again Thursday, Sept. 14.

Rev. C. W. Russell filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church last Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Roy B. Blackwelder, principal of the Zephyr school, has returned here to spend the winter.

Billy Parks spent the week-end in Elkin with Charles Dockery.

Mrs. R. E. Snow and Mrs. Etye Parks spent last Wednesday in Mountain Park attending the farmers' children, a half ton of assorted Christmas candies, a carload of holiday fruit, and hundreds of gifts of valuable merchandise.

Admittance tickets to the party will be distributed to every tobacco grower who sells his tobacco in Winston-Salem beginning on opening day.

The Christmas Party is given as a gesture of appreciation to growers who have patronized the Winston-Salem leaf market by the Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, Retail Merchants Association and Winston Warehouse Association.

Thomas B. Rice, Winston-Salem bottler, is chairman of the Joint Tobacco Market Committee for the 1939-40 season.

Heading the program committee for the party is John M.

Brown, a veteran in the field of successful entertainment. He will be assisted by Gordon Gray, Frank A. Stith and Wally Dunham.

FLY-KILLER

By sprinkling acid phosphate every few days on manure piles around his dairy barns, A. C. Barefoot, a Harnett county farmer, has practically eliminated flies about his place.

USING LIME

Transylvania county farmers have received over 2,000 tons of limestone through the AAA program this year, as well as a large supply through other sources.

Natives of East Africa tap banana trees and drink the juice when water is scarce.
