Mrs. Salmons Is Hostess to Mason Lillard Bible Class
The Mason Lillard Bible Class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. H. C. Salmons on Church street Monday evening, with thirteen members present. Miss Blanche Dixon, class president, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. During the business session it was voted to have the annual chicken stew, for class members and their families, the first Tuesday in October at the city playground.
The program was a discussion by all members attending of current events.
Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Lawrence-Wiseman
Of interest to friends in this section is the marriage of Miss Ruth Lawrence to Alfred Wiseman. The marriage was solemnized at Independence, Virginia, September 2, with Rev. Clinton A. Brabston officiating, using the ring ceremony.
For her wedding the bride wore a costume suit of gray wool with navy accessories. Her bouquet was sweetheart roses and valley lilies.
Mrs. Wiseman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawrence of Trinity, and Mr. Wiseman is the son of J. A. Wiseman of Booneville and the late Mrs. Wiseman of High Point.
Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman are making their home in High Point.

Mrs. Allen Is Hostess at Lovely Party Friday
Mrs. Marion Allen was hostess at a lovely afternoon party Friday at her home on Church street. Autumn flowers were used in a colorful arrangement in the living room and dining room, where six tables were placed for bridge. At the conclusion of the play the high score award went to Mrs. Hubert Parker and the runner-up award to Mrs. Paul Price. Mrs. Leo Topping, of Lawrence, Mass., guest of Mrs. Howard Hatch, and Mrs. Sam Neaves and Mrs. John Sagar, brides of the year, were presented remembrances.

A beautifully appointed salad course, with numerous accessories, was served late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Poindexter Entertains Club Thursday
Mrs. J. R. Poindexter entertained members of the Two-Four Bridge Club and sufficient guests to complete two tables at a delightful bridge-luncheon Thursday at her home on Bridge street. The guests were invited for one o'clock and upon their arrival a tempting luncheon was served. The tables were attractively arranged with autumn flowers.
Bridge was played at two tables during the afternoon with scoring honors going to Mrs. Thomas Roth at the conclusion of the play.
Those making up the tables were: Mesdames A. O. Bryan, Rich Chatham, Paul Gwyn, E. C. Grier, Thomas Roth, P. M. Greene and Errol Hayes.

Thursday Afternoon Book Club Meets with Mrs. Leeper
Members of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club were delightfully entertained at the monthly meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. T. A. Leeper on West Main street. Rook was played at three tables during the afternoon with the high score award going to Mrs. George Royall at the conclusion of the play.
