An important business meeting of the Jonathan Hunt Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Wellborn on Bridge street Saturday afternoon, September 30, at 2 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Brunswick Stew is Widely Attended
Approximately 150 people attended the Brunswick stew Thursday evening given by the Woman's Club, under the direction of Mrs. James Booher, chairman of the ways and mean committee of the club. The proceeds of the dinner went to the library fund of the club and will be used to finance the library from which WPA aid has temporarily been withdrawn. Members of the Kiwanis club suspended their weekly dinner meeting to meet with the club.

Fidelis Class Meets with Mrs. Cooley
The Fidelis Class of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. T. F. Cooley at Klondike Farm Tuesday evening, with sixteen members present.
Mrs. T. W. Church conducted the devotionals and Mrs. David Brendle, class president, presided over the business session. Routine reports and discussions featured the business hour.
Contests were enjoyed during a pleasant social hour. The hostess served Russian tea and cookies.

Mrs. Leeper is Book Club Hostess
Mrs. T. A. Leeper entertained members of her book club at the regular fortnightly meeting Saturday evening at her home on West Main street. A dessert course was served upon the arrival of the guests.
During the evening rook was played at three tables. The club award for high score went to Mrs. W. C. Cox and the consolation prize to Mrs. L. I. Wade at the conclusion of the games.
Mrs. Will Sutton, of Hamlet, guest of Mrs. L. I. Wade, was a visitor for the meeting.

Mrs. Freeman Is Luncheon Hostess Tuesday
Mrs. R. C. Freeman was hostess at a delightful luncheon Tuesday at her home on Church street. Dahlias were used throughout the home and the luncheon table was centered with a bowl of the same flowers. Covers were placed for Mesdames P. M. Greene, I. C. Yates, Franklin Folger, H. F. Laffoon, C. F. Lineberry, J. W. L. Benson, Errol Hayes, W. W. Whitaker, H. C. Salmons and T. F. Cooley.
In cutting for the prize among the guests Mrs. Franklin Folger was the fortunate winner.

Mrs. Neaves Is Hostess at Afternoon Party
Mrs. Fred Neaves was hostess at a lovely afternoon party Thursday at her home on Gwyn avenue. Autumn flowers were artistically arranged throughout the home. During the afternoon bridge was played at four tables. Miss Emalene Neaves won the high score award at the conclusion of the play and the consolation prize went to Mrs. Hugh Parks.
Mrs. Leo Topping, of Lawrence, Mass., guest of Mrs. Howard Hatch, was presented a compact. Ices, moulded in the shape of autumn flowers, individual cakes and salted nuts, were served late in the afternoon.

Luncheon to Feature Initial Club Meeting Tuesday
Following the annual custom, the work of the Elkin Woman's Club for 1939-40 will get under way with a club luncheon Tuesday, October 3, in the banquet hall at Hotel Elkin. The luncheon will be held at one o'clock.

Mrs. Jacques Busbee, of Jugtown, noted artist and lecturer, will be guest speaker for the meeting. Mrs. Busbee is well known throughout the state for her work and her coming here is anticipated eagerly.
Tickets and arrangements are in charge of Mesdames J. R. Poindexter and C. C. Poindexter. It is hoped that all club members will attend this opening session.

Dorcas Class Meets Tuesday Evening
The Dorcas Clas of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Jennings Tuesday evening, with 18 members present. The meeting opened with the scripture reading by Mrs. T. L. Parnell and prayer by Mrs. Fred Harris.

Mrs. Jennings, class president, presided over the business meeting. Routine reports were heard. Mrs. Fred Harris was elected captain of group four of the class and Mrs. Mary Laster was elected stewardship vice-president. A Bible study course was organized, under the leadership of Miss Estelle Cockerhan.
During a pleasant social hour the hostess, assisted by group one, served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Allen Is Hostess at Bridge-Luncheon
Mrs. Marion Allen was hostess at a lovely party Friday at her home on Church street when she entertained at a bridge-luncheon. The guests were invited for one o'clock. Sixteen guests were invited for bridge and six additional guests for luncheon. The home was beautifully arranged with autumn flowers in brilliant colors.

In the bridge games the high score award went to Mrs. Charles G. Ashb and the runner-up prize to Mrs. Errol Hayes. Mrs. Hoy Moose, of Mount Pleasant, guest of her mother, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, and Miss Julia Ashburn, of Richmond, guest of her sister, Mrs. J. R. Poindexter, were each given remembrances. Among the non-players Mrs. E. F. McNeer drew the prize.

Mrs. Ashby Is Hostess to Club at Luncheon Thursday
Mrs. Chan's G. Ashby delightfully entertained members of her bridge club at a morning party and luncheon Thursday at Hotel Elkin. Bridge was played at two tables. Scoring honors went to Mrs. Raymond Chatham at the conclusion of the play. Mrs. Hoy Moose, of Mount Pleasant, an out-of-town guest, was given a lovely remembrance.
At one o'clock a beautifully appointed luncheon was served. Covers were placed for nine. The table was centered with a graceful bouquet of autumn flowers.

Those making up the tables were: Mesdames Errol Hayes, Paul Gwyn, Raymond Chatham, R. C. Freeman, Richard G. Chatham, J. R. Poindexter, Hoy Moose and Mrs. Ashby. Mrs. W. W. Whitaker was a special guest for luncheon.

Bride Is Feted at Party Thursday Evening
Honoring Mrs. Byron Transou, a bride of the month, Miss Louise Transou entertained at a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening at her home on West Main street. Dahlias and other autumn flowers were used in the home, which was thrown en suite for the reception of the guests. Upon their arrival the guests were asked to write favorite recipes and menus in a book for the bride. The guests were delighted with a vocal solo, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Miss Josephine Paul, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Roscoe Poplin, and a humorous reading by Miss Emma Cooke.

The honoree was presented with a number of lovely gifts. Cake, coffee and mints were served during the evening. The guest list included twenty-five. Mrs. F. W. McCraw, of Winston-Salem, sister of the bride, was an out-of-town guest.

Miss Mary Nell Gray is Bride of Elmer Morrison
A beautiful home wedding was solemnized Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burrus Gray of this city when Miss Mary Nell Gray became the bride of Elmer Morrison.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of fern and cut flowers. Rev. R. J. Pardue officiated, using the ring ceremony. Only members of the families and a few close friends were present.
Miss Helen Walls, pianist, played the "Wedding March" from Lo-hengrin as a processional and during the ceremony she played "I Love You Truly," Bond.
Immediately after the ceremony a four course dinner was served the bridal party and wedding guests. The table was centered with a graceful bouquet of autumn flowers, flanked on either side by white tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gertie Gray of Clingman and the late Bryant Gray and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Morrison of Jonesville. Both are employees of Chatham Manufacturing company.
At present Mr. and Mrs. Morrison are making their home with the bridegroom's parents.

ROYALL - MILES-BROOKS REUNION HELD SUNDAY
Members of the Royall-Miles-Brooks families met in annual reunion Sunday at Roaring Gap church. The families were represented by large crowds from surrounding sections and many from distant states, including Virginia, West Virginia and Indiana.

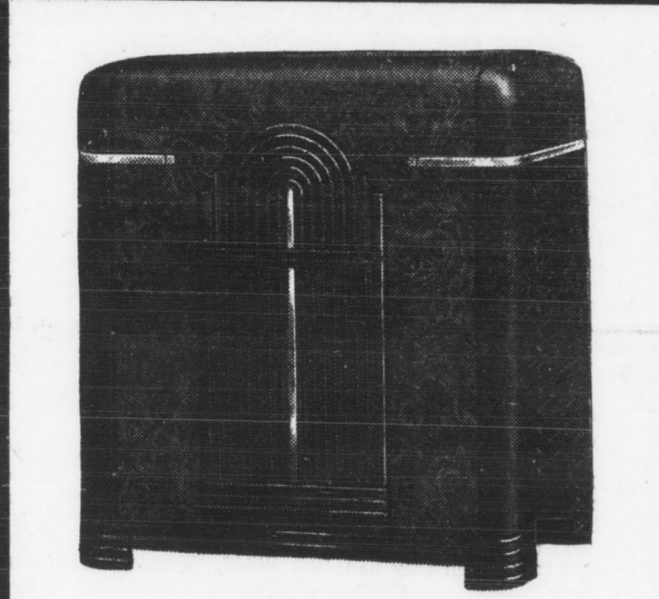

Interesting talks were made by Rev. Grant Cothren, pastor of the church, J. A. J. Royall, committee chairman, Rev. H. A. Adams, of North Wilkesboro, and Rev. I. B. Underwood, of Yanceyville. Special music was furnished by the Roaring Gap choir, the Eveready quartette of Millers Creek and the Sunshine quartette of Pleasant Hill.

The next meeting will be held at the same place and the date was set for the first Sunday in September.
