Lyon-Kennedy Marriage Is Solemnized Saturday

Miss Margaret Lyon, of this city, and Junior Kennedy, of State Road, were married in a pretty ceremony Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage on Church street, with Rev. Eph Whisenhunt officiating, using the ring ceremony of the Baptist church.

Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt, pianist, played the "Wedding March" from Mendelssohn's Lohengrin, as a recessional. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of autumn flowers. Only a few close friends and members of the families attended the service.

For her wedding the bride wore a fall dress of light weight navy woolen, trimmed with touches of white. Her accessories were of navy and her shoulder bouquet was of carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nancy Lyon, of this city, and the late Dolphus Lyon. The bridegroom is the son of Nathaniel Kennedy and the late Mrs. Kennedy, of State Road.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a brief wedding trip to places of interest in the Blue Ridge mountains of North Carolina and Virginia. For travel the bride wore a two piece suit of brown with accessories of the same shade.

They are making their home in North Elkin.

Parent-Teachers Meet Tuesday Afternoon

Meeting in the first session of the school year at the elementary school auditorium Tuesday afternoon, members of the Parent-Teacher Association voted to supply a telephone for the elementary building and to give additional toilet supplies to both the high and elementary school buildings.

Mrs. George Royall, chairman of the ways and means committee, announced that the organization would sponsor a play to be presented during October. Reports of other committee chairmen were also heard.

Mrs. J. Mark McAdams, president, conducted the devotional period and the new members and teachers were welcomed by Mrs. J. Harold Click. To acquaint new members with the objectives of the association the P.-T. A. creed was read by Miss Emma Cooke and the state president's annual message by Miss Blanche Dixon.

Mrs. McAdams told of the highlights of the Parent-Teacher institute which she attended at Chapel Hill during August, giving particular emphasis to information regarding the schools of North Carolina.

Misses Lena Sale and Frances Alexander, accompanied by Miss Peggy Royall, gave two duets, "Loch Lomond" and "Tinkle-loo" and Miss Josephine Paul led the group in singing familiar songs.

Attendance awards went to Misses Mary, Virginia Barker's and Elizabeth Anderson's grades in the high school and Miss Mary Hendren's grade in the elementary school.

JONESVILLE NEGROES HURT IN SHOOTING

John Francis, Jonesville negro, and his wife, were both admitted to Hugh Chatham hospital last Friday after a shooting affray at their home in which both were injured. Francis is alleged to have shot his wife and she is said to have shot him in turn.

The woman was the more seriously injured of the two, the bullet striking and breaking the bone in her thigh. Francis received a flesh wound and has recovered to the extent that he was removed from the hospital to the Yadkin county jail at Yadkinville Tuesday on a charge of assault with intent to kill. He is alleged to stated prior to the assault that he was going to kill his wife.

A third party, a man, is said to have figured in the trouble which resulted in the shooting.

SURRY COURT ADJOURNS AFTER WEEK'S SESSION

The September term of Criminal Court for Surry county closed Friday. Many of the most important cases were continued until a later date. Frank T. Llewellyn, Clerk of Court, stated that most of the cases disposed of were small, unimportant ones. Judge Zeb V. Nettles presided.

Civil Court, which was scheduled to have opened on Monday, September 25 was postponed until a later term, which will probably be called sometime in November, it was said. Present tobacco market conditions and the war situation were given as reasons for the postponement of court.
