Unity Club Host At Dinner Dance Saturday P. M.

Members of the Thurmond Chatham Unity Club were hosts at a dinner-dance at the clubhouse Saturday evening. The guest list included members of the club, their wives and a number of friends. Covers were placed for forty-nine.

A clever "radio program," broadcast by C. J. Hyslop, club advisor, was a feature of the entertainment for the dinner. Lowell Smithy, program chairman, who with Mr. Hyslop arranged the skit, was master of ceremonies.

It was announced at the meeting that the winners of the awards in the photo contest, being sponsored by the club, would be announced at the next meeting. Approximately 75 pictures have been entered for prizes.

Following the dinner dancing was enjoyed.

The clubhouse was lavishly decorated for the affair. Autumn foliage and flowers were artistically arranged throughout the spacious reception room.

Members of the club and guests attending the party were:
