

SOCIETY.

Class Enjoys Annual Chicken Stew Tuesday

Members of the Mason Lillard Bible class of the Methodist church, their families and a few invited guests, about 75 in number, enjoyed the annual class chicken stew Tuesday evening at the Neaves' picnic ground in Westover Park. A bountiful supper was served.

Circles and Mission Study Group to Meet at Methodist Church
Monday afternoon, October 16, the circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet in group session at the church at 2:30. Following the business session the fall mission study will be taught by the study leader, Mrs. R. G. Smith. All members are urged to attend.

L. H. C. Club Sponsors Bingo Party

Members of the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club sponsored a bingo party at the clubhouse Friday evening. Approximately 140 people attended. A number of prizes were awarded during the evening, these being donated to the club by various business houses of the town. The grand prize for the evening, a "Chatham" blanket, went to Mrs. Dewey York.

Mrs. McNeely Entertains at Supper for Club Saturday

Mrs. Fred McNeely entertained at an enjoyable barbecue supper at her home on West Main street Saturday evening, having as guests members of the Round Dozen Book Club. The home was artistically arranged throughout with autumn foliage and flowers. Following the supper rummy was played at two tables. In the games scoring honors went to Mrs. David Brendle and Mrs. H. B. Holcomb.

Mission Circle Meets Thursday

Circle number four of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Dixie Graham on Bridge street, with Miss Mayme Blackwood associate hostess, with thirteen members present. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Max Boyles. The program on "Lifting Our Horizons in Fields Afar," was presented by Misses Ophelia Paul, Mable Sale and Mrs. John Sagar.

Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. McNeer Is Hostess Friday at Informal Tea

Mrs. E. F. McNeer entertained at a delightful informal tea Friday afternoon at her home on Church street. The lovely home was arranged throughout with autumn flowers.

In the dining room, Mrs. E. G. Click, Mrs. J. W. L. Benson and Mrs. H. C. Salmon assisted in serving a prettily appointed refreshment course. The guest list included: Mesdames George Royall, W. W. Whitaker, H. C. Salmon, E. G. Click, D. G. Smith, R. J. Barker, H. P. Graham, Mason Lillard, P. W. Tucker, J. W. L. Benson and C. F. Lineberry.

Mrs. Wellborn Is Hostess at D. A. R. Meeting

The Jonathan Hunt Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. W. R. Wellborn Saturday afternoon in an interesting session. In addition to the members, three additional friends, Mrs. Jack Carter, Mrs. H. P. Graham and Mrs. W. C. Cox, were invited.

Mrs. E. W. McDaniel, program chairman, introduced Miss Lena Lewis, of the school faculty, who spoke on world condition as a result of the present European situation. Her talk was highly enjoyed.

During a social hour a beautifully appointed salad course was served.

Mrs. Graham Is Hostess Thursday to Garden Club

Mrs. H. P. Graham entertained members of the Yadkin Valley Garden Club at an enjoyable meeting at her home on Gwyn avenue Thursday afternoon. A clever program, "A Child for a Day," was arranged and presented by Mrs. E. G. Click. In keeping with the program Mrs. Click sang "A Little Tin Soldier." The life of Lily Strickland, well known composer, was read by Mrs. H. P. Graham and at the conclusion of the reading Mrs. Click delighted the guests with one of Miss Strickland's most beloved compositions, "Mah Linda Lou."

Each guest was presented a collection of hyacinth, narcissus and tuberose bulbs by Mrs. Click.

An ice course, with numerous accessories, was served during a pleasant social hour. Eleven members were present for the meeting.

Legion Auxiliary Meets Monday Evening

The Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ruth Byrd Crater, with Miss Effie Crater associate hostess, with eleven members present. The meeting opened with the ritual.

During the business session the auxiliary voted a donation of $10 for books for the public library, the books to be used for the Legion Auxiliary shelf.

The program was excerpts from various periodicals and papers regarding the twenty-first national Legion and Auxiliary convention in Chicago last week. A piano solo, Mendelssohn's "Consolation" by Miss Mary Crater, was enjoyed.

A quiz contest was held during the social hour. Refreshments were served.

Playmakers Club Entertained at Theatre Party

Mrs. Pauline Masten Pardue entertained members of the Playmakers Club at a theatre party Tuesday evening. The guest list included twelve members of the club and one visitor, Mrs. John Franklin. Following the show the guests were served refreshments at a drug store. In drawing for the prize among the guests, Mrs. Ted Brown was awarded a piece of costume jewelry.

McCarte-Hendren Wedding Is Solemnized Sunday

Of interest to friends throughout this section is the marriage of Miss Blanche McCarte to Thomas Ring Hendren, both of this city, which was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Independence, Va., with L. D. Usery of the Baptist church officiating, using the ring ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore a fall dress of plum colored silk. Her hat was the same shade as her dress and other accessories were of black. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of sweetheart rosebuds. Mrs. Hendren is the daughter of J. P. McCarter and the late Mrs. McCarter, of Union Grove. She was educated at Mountain Park high school and Appalachian State Teachers College. For the past seven years she has made her home here and for most of that time was associated with Hotel Elkin.

Mr. Hendren is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Hendren, of this city, and is a member of one of Elkin's most prominent families. He was educated in the city schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaither Sprinkle, of Jonesville, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Mock, of Booneville, and Miss Lacy McCarter, of Union Grove, the latter a sister of the bride, accompanied the young couple to Virginia and were the only witnesses to the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendren are temporarily at home with Mr. and Mrs. Gaither Sprinkle.

Evans Children Are Feted on Birthday Anniversaries

Honoring her daughter and son, Jane and John Evans, II, who celebrated their fifth and sixth birthday anniversaries on Thursday, Mrs. John Evans entertained at a party from four until five-thirty Thursday afternoon. The guest list included about fifty children of similar age.

Outdoor games were enjoyed, under the direction of Misses Mary Crater, Peggy Royall and Constance Greenwood.

After the games the children were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table was centered with a bowl of flowers in pastel shades and the same colors were repeated in balloons which were festooned from the chandelier. On either end of the table were duplicate birthday cakes decorated in pink and white. Ices and cake were served. The little girls were presented favors of cooking sets and the boys were given toy automobiles.

Little Miss Becky Fitzgerald, of Winston-Salem, was the only out-of-town guest.

Informal Tea Honors Mrs. Ray Reavis Saturday

Mrs. Alden Hunt, of Hamptonville, entertained at a lovely informal tea at the home of her father, W. S. Reich, on Vine street in this city Saturday afternoon, from 4 to 5 o'clock, to honor Mrs. Ray Reavis, who before her marriage in September was Miss Flossie Joyner, of Hamptonville.

The home was decorated throughout with autumn flowers. In the dining room the decorations were in bridal green and white. The table was centered with a bowl of white dahlias and on either end of the table were tall white tapers in crystal holders.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Hunt and directed to the bride's book, which was presided over by Mrs. Harvey Hemric, sister of the bride.

In the dining room Mrs. H. J. Weaver and Mrs. W. N. Ireland served tea, sandwiches and salted nuts.

The guest list included twenty-five friends of the honoree from Hamptonville.

Miss Nannie Katherine Jones is Bride of Mr. Amburn Saturday afternoon at five o'clock in a private ceremony solemnized in the Sparta Presbyterian church, where the bride's grandmother has worshipped for years, Miss Nannie Catherine Jones, of this city, was married to James Franklin Amburn, of Booneville.

The vows were spoken before Rev. R. L. Berry, pastor of the church. The ring ceremony was used for the service. Only members of the immediate families attended.

For the ceremony the bride wore a fall costume of Viking blue with accessories of black. Her flowers were a corsage of sweetheart rosebuds and valley lilies.

Mrs. Amburn is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Barker, of this city, and a granddaughter of Mrs. N. J. Jones, of Elkin and Sparta. She attended Mitchell College, Statesville, and after her graduation she completed a nurses' training course at St. Vincent's hospital, Norfolk, Va. For the past two years she has been engaged in nursing in Covington, Va., having resigned some months ago to spend the summer at her home here.

Mr. Amburn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Franklin Amburn, of Booneville, and is a member of one of the most prominent families in Yadkin county. He completed an accountant's course at National Business College, Roanoke, Va., and for several years was associated with his father here in the Yadkin Auto Sales company. For the past several years he has held the office of county accountant and tax supervisor of Yadkin county.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Amburn left for a honeymoon. After October 15, they will be at home in Booneville.

Patronize Tribune advertisers. They offer real values.

MULBERRY

The farmers of this community are very busy hauling their tobacco to market.

Several people from here attended the funeral of Mrs. J. P. Bryant at Ararat last Tuesday afternoon. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Isaacs and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Dobbins and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Southard, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wall and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Holder, Mrs. Emma Tucker, Mrs. Joe Thompson, Mrs. Hort Thompson and Mrs. Ida Cockerham and Mr. Elmer Cockerham.

Several from here attended the singing at Zephyr Sunday afternoon. There were several quartets taking part which were greatly enjoyed by all.

The revival meeting is in progress at Union Cross Baptist church this week. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The friends and relatives of Mr. M. A. Southard will be glad to know that he is recovering nicely from a recent illness.

Rev. Delmer Hodge will preach at Zephyr Baptist church the fourth Sunday night in October. The public is invited to attend.

ROCKFORD

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Transou and Mrs. Mary Mock, of Booneville, visited their bother, Mr. J. B. Transou, last Sunday.

Mr. John J. Burrus is improving rapidly, his friends will be pleased to learn.

A large delegation of the Rockford Baptist Sunday school attended the Sunday School Association at the Copeland Baptist church last Sunday.

Mr. Roy Lee Burrus spent several days last week with relatives in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Coe are spending a few days this week with relatives in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marion and family, of Burch, spent last Saturday visiting their many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thore and family, of Rockford, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Booker and family, of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McCormick and daughter, Jane, of Winston-Salem, motored to the Scenic Highway last Sunday and had a picnic lunch.

Mr. N. W. Saunders' many friends will be sorry to hear that he is sick and in the Baptist hospital.

Mrs. Rosa Booker, of Dobson, spent several days last week with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Thore. Mr. Coke Wall, of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Clark and daughter, Louise, Mr. T. B. Holy-field and Tommy spent last Sunday afternoon in the mountains.

Mr. John West and Gilmer Gaint, of Greensboro, spent last Sunday visiting Mr. R. M. Clark. Mrs. W. H. McCormick spent last week with relatives in Winston-Salem.

Read Tribune Advertisements!

New Fall Suit

Here You Will Find the

- STYLE
- COLOR
- PRICE

You're Looking For!

Every new style! Every new fabric! Every new color for fall and winter! You'll find just that, so come in today!

$14.50 to $24.50

Latest Creations!

PORK PIE HATS

They're New and Popular!
All Colors and Sizes!

$1.45

EXTRA SPECIAL!

Thurs. - Fri. - Sat.

One lot of Broadcloth Pajamas. Button or Gripper Front. $1.48 Value—

$1.19

ELKIN CLOTHING COMPANY

QUALITY MEN'S WEAR

Fred Sale Phone 361 Zimmie Tharpe

4 Reasons

WHY YOU SHOULD BUY FURNITURE AT Hayes & Speas

1. STABILITY We are Elkin's oldest Furniture Firm, proudly maintaining a reputation for dependability and fair dealing.
2. QUALITY We buy the best furniture we can find in your price range. We know we could have bought every item in the store for a little less and cheapened it where it did not show. However, we paid the higher price and charged the difference to "head-ache insurance." Neither you nor we want complaints.
3. PRICE We know our prices cannot be beaten when quality is taken into consideration. Our task is to convince you of that fact. The price you pay is the price we pay, plus a legitimate profit. We shop every market to be sure we do not pay too much. We are content with a small profit. Add it all up and you get more furniture for your dollar here.
4. TERMS We have always made it a point to extend liberal credit to those people who deserve and appreciate it. We have trusted the people of this section during the years that we have been in business, and have found them to be honest. We make no carrying charge, no investigation fee, no fines or penalties. You pay only the price marked on the merchandise.

IF YOU NEED FURNITURE IT WILL PAY YOU TO VISIT OUR STORE

HAYES & SPEAS

FINE FURNITURE PHONE 70

BUT YOU ALWAYS USED TO START RUBBING YOUR EYES AFTER THE FIRST CHAPTER

NO EYESTRAIN WITH THIS LAMP. I'VE NEARLY FINISHED THE BOOK

I. E. S. BETTER SIGHT LAMPS

reduce the danger of eyestrain

These amazing new I. E. S. Better Sight Lamps . . . that cost only a cent or two an evening to operate . . . are scientifically designed for comfortable seeing and help to prevent eyestrain. They come in attractive styles in both floor and table models.

The lamp shown is a direct-indirect lamp. It throws light directly on your book and at the same time floods the room with a generous quantity of indirect light . . . free from harmful shadows and annoying glare. And they cost so very little to buy and operate.

I. E. S. FLOOR LAMPS	$7.95 to $11.95
95c Cash $1 Per Month
I. E. S. STUDY LAMPS	$4.50
50c Cash $1 Per Month
FIN-TO-WALL LAMPS	$1.95 to $3.45
45c Cash 50c Per Month

DIRECT-INDIRECT LAMP
New models of the direct-indirect lamp have a glass reflector especially adapted for a MAZDA indirect Three-Lite lamp which gives three levels of illumination from the same bulb. Besides throwing light against the ceiling for general illumination, the glass reflector permits ample direct, downward light. For more severe visual tasks, add the light from three candles beneath the shade, taking 40 or 60 watt MAZDA lamps.

IMPORTANT—Be sure to look for the authorized certification tag on the lamp you buy. It isn't an I. E. S. Better Sight Lamp if it doesn't have this tag.

Duke Power Co.