

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

The Dobson Woman's Club held its first meeting of the year in the Woman's Clubhouse last Thursday evening. The auditorium was very attractive with its array of beautiful and colorful fall flowers. With the president, Mrs. John W. Comer, in the chair, the meeting was opened with the club hymn by Sallie Southall Cotten, followed by the Collect in unison.

Reports from the various departments and committees were heard and passed upon. An outstanding project for the year is to equip a first aid room at the school building for the care of school children who may accidentally be hurt or become ill, as the case may be. Another objective is to add to the club library new books and to furnish clothes and necessities for the unfortunate.

Mrs. John Lewellyn and Mrs. R. A. Freeman and their committees will put on a dinner and bazaar at an early date. The attendance prize was won by Miss Edythe Reece. Mrs. DeWitt Sparger, chairman of the month, presented the following program: Piano solo, "Hungarian March," (H. Kowalski), by Mrs. Rebecca Little. Mrs. Sparger then introduced the four past presidents, who consecutively brought history of club activities and aims since its organization, with the subject, "Our Club in the Community." First, Mrs. A. D. Folger gave the history and organization, and the problems, handicaps and successes of its infancy. Miss Emma Comer spoke of the civic attainments and helpful services to town and school. Mrs. Emma Reece Mock spoke of the club's effect, culturally, and its moral attainments. Mrs. W. E. Hancock gave an enthusiastic outline of future aims and accomplishments. During the social hour refreshments were served by the committee of the month, composed of Mrs. D. T. Sparger, Mrs. Theford Sprinkle, Mrs. W. E. Hancock, Miss Rachel Howell, Mrs. Fred Coates, Mrs. Maude Freeman, Mrs. Emma Hampton and Mrs. Callie Hassler. Rev. R. L. West filled his appointment in the Baptist church at the 11 o'clock hour Sunday, during which Mr. Little, of Gastonia, sang a solo, "I Shall Not Again Pass This Way."

Mrs. C. W. Russell still remains in the Mt. Airy hospital, but is recovering nicely from an operation.

Mrs. Louise Norman McNeil, of Carthage, is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Norman.

The W. C. Council met Monday evening with Mrs. W. M. Jackson and at the conclusion of the business session, Mrs. Jackson served a salad course, supplemented with sweets and iced drinks.

Miss Kathryn Folger, of Reidsville, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Folger.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reece, Mrs. Eunice Hampton, Henry Hampton, Mrs. Emma Mock, Marianne Mock and Miss Edythe Reece attended a home coming at Mr. Wilson Reece's home Sunday afternoon, honoring him on his birthday. Refreshments were served by his son, Mr. Risden Reece, of Winston-Salem, and his daughter, Mrs. Pete McKinney, of the home section, and Miss Victoria Hampton. Quite a number of kindred and friends were in attendance.

The Woman's club and Woodmen of the World sponsored an oyster supper in the club building Friday evening.

Miss Eunice Marion has accepted a position with Jackson Brothers at Mt. Airy.

Mrs. J. W. Crawford and Mrs. Viola Reid spent Saturday in Greensboro.

Miss Beatrice Holbrook spent most of Saturday in Greensboro on business.

Mr. Joe Cox spent the week-end in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crawford and family spent Sunday in Statesville with relatives.

Little David Hemmings is confined to his home with scarlet fever.

Mrs. Lulu Woltz is in the hospital awaiting a major operation.

Prominent Citizen Of Boonville Dies Last Wednesday

Board W. Day, 71, prominent citizen and business man of Boonville, died at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon of last week, following a long illness.

Mr. Day came to Boonville in 1891. In 1893 he entered the mercantile business and continued until his death. He was elected president of the Commercial & Savings Bank, at Boonville, when it was organized and held this position since that time. He was a son of John A. Day and Phoebe Ely Woodruff Day and was born in Surry county, May 23, 1866. Prior to going to Boonville he taught school in Stokes county. He was an active supporter of his church and all civic movements.

Mr. Day was married to Miss Elizabeth Crouch in 1899. She died 12 years ago. Survivors include two children, Miss Phoebe Day, of Boonville, and Richard Carlyle Day, of Kings Mountain.

Funeral services were held Friday morning at 11 o'clock from Boonville Baptist church. The rites were in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. P. Davis. Interment was in the church cemetery.

BENHAM

The pastor, Rev. Grant Cothren, filled his regular appointment Saturday and Sunday, and preached interesting sermons both services.

One of the teachers of Benham school, Miss Zola Phillips, has been seriously ill with pneumonia. Her friends all hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ossie Yarboro were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Settle Sunday; also Mrs. Virgil Settle of Lomax.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Smith of Elkin, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Smith and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinkler Adams of State Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barker of Little Mountain, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Tucker and little son, Hollis, were the Sunday guests of Mr. Tucker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lyons and children of Ronda, were the Sunday guests of Misses Myrtle and Ada Settle.

Rev. Grant Cothren of Roaring Gap, was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Adams of Ronda, were the week-end guests of Mrs. Adams' mother, Mrs. Nancy Smith.
