

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

Dobson, Oct. 25.—Arrangements have been completed for highway dedication of the new Mount Airy-Galax route, to be celebrated atop the Blue Ridge at Norvale Crags, October 25.

Gov. Clyde R. Hoey of North Carolina and Gov. James Price of Virginia, are scheduled to be the chief speakers of the occasion. Also on the program as outlined are Frank Dunlap, J. Gordon Hackett, Congressman Lon Folger, Congressman R. L. Doughton and Congressman T. G. Burch of Martinsville, Va. Mr. Woodruff of Mount Airy, and Mr. Landreth of Galax, are in charge of the mammoth barbecue which will be served at the noon hour. A tremendous crowd is expected to attend.

Rev. C. W. Russell is in attendance at the Methodist Conference in session at the West Market Methodist Church in Greensboro.

Miss Beatrice Holbrook, Edythe Reece, Elizabeth Norman, Mrs. Sallie Somers of Mount Airy, who is spending the winter in Fairmont, a member of the school faculty, spent Saturday with the family of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Norman.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Moser of Mary Freeman, Frances Freeman and Margaret Sparger attended the Baptist Training Union Conference, held in the First Baptist church of Mount Airy, Sunday afternoon. The B. T. U.'s are sponsoring a campaign of organizing B. T. U.'s, in a large number of churches in the Surry Association. Next session will be held in the Baptist church in Dobson, the fourth Sunday in November. Program in charge of Mr. Renegar, B. T. U. leader of the association.

The School Fair, held in the Dobson school gymnasium Friday was a success, both in entertainment and education. The exhibits from every grade in the school were considered exceptionally good, showing splendid work and progress under the teacher in charge. Mr. Joe Cox, teacher of the 7th grade, won first prize and Miss Edythe Reece, teacher of first grade, won second prize. The judges were Mr. H. S. Broome, principal of White Plains school; Mr. J. M. McAdams, of Elkin school, and Mr. Sam Gentry, of Mountain Park.

The always appealing "Bingo" stand was a great diversion for the school children, as well as others. There were numerous attractions otherwise to catch the dimes and nickles for benefit of the school. The fair was well attended by parents and others of school interests.

Jim Dan Hemmings of the State College at Raleigh, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hemmings. Mrs. Lucky of Charlotte, spent several days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Forrest.

Mrs. Sallie Folger is attending the Methodist Conference in Greensboro, and visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sam Poole. Mrs. C. W. Russell has returned to her home here, from the Mt. Airy hospital, and is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Moser of Zebulon, spent the week-end with Mrs. Mary Folger and Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Rogers, in the meantime seeing other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Snow and Mrs. F. F. Riggs spent Sunday afternoon in Pilot Mountain, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Smith, widow the late Dr. Smith, of Pilot Mountain, passed away Saturday afternoon, at her home, after a few days' illness. She had resided in Pilot Mountain for many years.

Mrs. Sallie Somers of Mount Airy, who is spending the winter in Fairmont, a member of the school faculty, spent Saturday with the family of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Norman.

Mrs. Maude Freeman left Wednesday to spend sometime with her daughters, Misses Rachel and Susan Freeman, in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and son, Ivey Gray, spent Saturday afternoon in Winston-Salem.

Miss Mary Cooper of U. N. C., Greensboro, spent last week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Sparger and Miss Margaret Sparger attended a baptizing Sunday, the result of a series of meetings held at Blue's Chapel by Mr. Delmer Hodge, near Fish River.

Mrs. Fred Lewellyn and Miss Lillian Harkrader of Greensboro, were visitors in town Sunday.

Announcement has been made at Vanassa, Ontario, Canada, of the engagement of Miss Bonnie Mae Stanley, of Vanassa, to Mr. Joseph Hobson, of Boonville, N. C., the wedding to take place the last of October.

THURMOND

Of interest to many friends of Miss Rhodena Kennedy is her marriage to Ray Jarvis of Winston-Salem. The newly weds are making their home in Winston-Salem at the present.

A large pick-up crowd from here motored to Elkin last Sunday night and attended the revival services which have been in progress there for the past two weeks, but which have now closed.

We are glad to note the improvement in the condition of Mrs. Eva Cockerham, who has recently undergone a major operation at Hugh Chatham hospital. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Lee Holcomb, member of the CCC camp at Laurel Springs, visited his parents here last week-end.

Mr. Thomas Moody of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end here with his wife and children, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Pruitt of Jonesville, visited the latter's mother here last week.

Leonard Smithy of this place, has enrolled in the CCC camp at Laurel Springs.

Everyone is invited and especially urged to attend prayer meeting tonight (Thursday). An interesting program is planned. Rev. S. M. Stikeleather, district superintendent, is to speak and a great time in the Lord is expected. Come, and bring others.

A large number from here attended the singing at Roaring Gap church last Sunday evening.

Mr. Lesse Fowler's mother, of Ashe county, is visiting him here now.

Mrs. Ellen Wilmoth is spending sometime with her son, Calvin, in Union Hill community.

Miss Chalmer Simmons is spending sometime in North Wilkesboro, taking a course in beauty culture.

Come out to Sunday school next Sunday at Thurmond.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Miss Ferlie Mae Shore of Jonesville, was the week-end guest of her cousin, Miss Nancy Shore.

Rev. J. L. Powers filled his regular appointment at Mountain View Baptist church Sunday and Sunday night, October 22. The church unanimously re-elected him as pastor and hope to be honored by his pastoral service for the coming year.

Mr. Orle Harris of Longtown, was the Sunday dinner guest of his brother, Mr. Truman Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Tildon Byrd of High Point, were the week-end guests of Mrs. Byrd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. VanHoy.

Mrs. Lee Shore recently visited her sister, Mrs. Ruth Mickle, of Jonesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Efrid Collins had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Claude Burchette of Jonesville, and Mrs. Maude Shore and little daughter, Zeola.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles King had as their Sunday dinner guests Rev. J. L. Powers, Mr. C. C. Shore and Mr. Creed of Elkin; Mrs. Nancy Wid Shore and Miss Mary Bell Riley.

Very often the man who speaks in a soft voice is much-headed.

Brooks Cross Roads

Mrs. Reavis Is Honored
Mrs. Ray Reavis, a recent bride, was honored Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Velma Weaver and Mrs. W. N. Ireland, Jr., entertained at a shower at the home of Mrs. Weaver. The guests found their places at card tables arranged in the living room. Chinese checkers were played, with Mrs. Jones Todd and Mrs. Miles Shore tying for high score. Mrs. Hal Bell won second high. The honoree was the recipient of many lovely gifts. The Halloween motif was carried out in a delicious refreshment course.

Guests were Mrs. W. A. Hunt, Mrs. Charlie Gough, Mrs. Hal Bell, Mrs. Jones Todd, Mrs. Clyde Prevette, Mrs. Lola Carson, Mrs. C. R. Wright, Mrs. Eugene Joyner, Mrs. Miles Shore, Mrs. Spencer Bell, Mrs. R. L. Melton, Mrs. Raymond VanHoy, Miss Mary Melton, Miss Caroline Bell, Miss Maude Melton, Mrs. Carl Hoots and Miss Anne Hall, of Yadkinville, and Mrs. Harvey Hemric, of Jonesville.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Shore announce the marriage of their only daughter, Bessie Lee, to Mr. Charlie Hall Saturday, October 21, at Hillsville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Hudspeth, of Winston-Salem, visited his mother, Mrs. W. L. Hudspeth, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Brown announce the birth of a son, Reginald Steven, October 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Burgess announce the birth of a daughter, October 20.

Miss Caroline Bell had as her week-end guest Miss Dorcas Williams, of Harmony.

How to Tell
Employer—How can you tell the approach of winter, George? George—Well, sah, it begins ter git later earlier.

Both Are Good
