Drug Stores Are Observing Nat'l Pharmacy Week

At least 22 talks on coast-to-coast radio programs sponsored by manufacturers in the drug and allied fields, a 15-minute sustaining program over the NBC Red Network, and 24 interviews with pharmacists, each lasting approximately 15 minutes, are being broadcast by stations in all parts of the country in observance of National Pharmacy Week, which began last Sunday and will continue through next Saturday.

National Pharmacy Week, which is being observed here by Elkin's three modern drug stores, has been primarily designed to acquaint the public with the essential work which pharmacists do. During the week, everyone is urged to visit their drug store and get better acquainted with their druggist. Local drug stores will be glad to have visitors inspect their prescription departments and in other ways learn of the many services provided.
