Fall Creek to Give Program
East Bend, October 31—A Hallowe'en program will be given at Fall Creek School located a few miles west of here just off the Boonville highway Saturday night, November 4. The program will begin at 7 p.m. and officials are cordially inviting everybody to attend. Plans have already been made to make this annual program the best that the school has sponsored.

The program will consist of a varied assortment of games, contests and two short plays. There will be movies, bingo, ball throwing games, cake walks, "ugliest man and prettiest girl" contest, fishing, and several other added attractions that go with a Hallowe'en Carnival.

East Bend to Give Program
East Bend, October 31—An old-time Hallowe'en program will be presented by the East Bend school faculty and patrons of the school, Thursday night, November 2. L. H. Todd, principal of the school, announces that the attractions will be divided between the gymnasium where most of the games and contests will be in operation, and the school auditorium. In the school auditorium will be the feature attraction of the entire program. This program consists of varied stage attractions. Tickets to the entire carnival will be bought at the school auditorium entrance, and these will be good for admission to the gymnasium also.

BETHEL

We are sorry to note that Clay Mastin's condition has been right serious since getting his shoulder hurt while playing ball at school. He has been taking treatment at Hugh Chatham hospital for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Durham visited their daughter, Mrs. Baity Lowery, of Elkin, last Sunday evening.

Misses Vesta and Ruth Weatherman of State Road, were the guests of Misses Sadie and Mary Lou Mathis last week-end.

Among the several visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hemric last Sunday were Mrs. Hemric's brothers, Messrs. James Inscore of Mount Airy and Bynum Inscore and family of Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Cheeks of Swan Creek, were the guests of her parents here last Saturday and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Pardue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walker and little daughter, Linda, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Green, here, last week-end.

Singing at Shiloh Last Sunday Well Attended

Much interest and fellowship was manifested in the big singing held at Shiloh Baptist church, near Hamptonville, last Sunday.

The chairman, W. H. Jones, called the meeting at 10 o'clock a. m., with a hymn sung by the congregation. Mr. Rastus Crater read 1st Psalm for the devotion and Rev. R. R. Crater, who is secretary of the convention, led the opening prayer.

Several numbers were rendered before noon, then one hour and fifteen minutes were given for luncheon and a good social time with the ones present from different churches.

Shiloh, Bethel, Union, New Hope, Island Ford and East Elkin were the churches represented by a choir and the thirteen quartets and duets that were present and took a part were Shiloh, Jonesville, Union, the Welborn children, Jones, Collins, New Hope, Happy Day, Island Ford, Mount Vernon, Waughtown Baptist, Winston-Salem, Oak Grove, Curley and Bob, and Patterson Avenue, Winston-Salem.

This was said to be the best singing of this convention ever held, with a record breaking congregation. Much courtesy was extended the visitors by this church.

This seemed to be an ideal place to meet together, to worship in the new church building which is erected in a beautiful spot of God's country.

The next singing will meet at East Elkin church the 5th Sunday in December. W. A. Stroud led the congregatoin in singing, "When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder," and the closing prayer was led by Rev. N. T. Jarvis.

In Wisconsin a farm house has a fireplace 26 feet wide.
