PHILLIPS SPEAKS ON SAFETY AT SCHOOL

In observance of Safety Week, which is being sponsored this week by the Junior Department of the Elkin Woman's Club, Highway Patrolman Lee Phillips spoke on safety Wednesday morning at the chapel exercises at the elementary school.

Furthering the intensive drive for caution among the children at street crossings and intersections, posters have been placed in conspicuous places in both the high school and elementary buildings.

The club, working in connection with the Boy Scouts, hopes to have the streets patrolled at the most strategic places during the school term for the protection of the younger children.

NEW STORE TO OPEN FRIDAY

Miller-Jones Company Located in New Building on East Main Street

MODERN SHOE STORE

Miller-Jones Company, operating a group of 180 retail footwear and hosiery stores throughout the Central States, will open their new store on East Main street in this city Friday.

Miller-Jones Company is an affiliate of a large shoe manufacturing concern, whose headquarters are in a nearby state, and are now operating eight shoe factories, employing 4500 workers. This shoe manufacturer has been in business for more than 50 years, and enjoys the reputation of making stylish, comfortable and durable footwear at reasonable prices.

The store here has been newly constructed, with a modern front of beautiful black glass bulkheads with red stripe below the plate glass windows. Above the windows an attractive new sign has been installed, adding to the new and modern appearance.

Miller-Jones Company carries a full line of footwear, in a large variety of styles and in a range of sizes to fit every member of the family. Their managers are carefully trained in the fitting of particular styles to particular feet and are exceptionally well qualified to fit growing children's feet with Size-Rite footwear, in types of shoes that are appropriate.

Fred Faulk Paul is manager of the new store. He will welcome all who are interested in seeing the store, and invites the public to come in and look around at any time. Miss Faye McCann, well-known Elkin girl, will have charge of the hosiery department.

The formal opening of the store will take place on Friday at which time free gifts and novelties will be provided for the children.
