Miss Margaret Sale Is Bride of Henry M. Ratliff, Jr.

Of widespread interest is the announcement which is made today by the bride's mother of the marriage of Miss Margaret Bell Sale, of this city, to Henry M. Ratliff, Jr., of Jordontown, Texas. The marriage was solemnized Tuesday evening, November 21, in San Antonio, Texas, with Rev. H.

M. Ratliff, Sr., father of the bridegroom, officiating, using the ring ritual.

For her marriage the bride wore a formal street length dress of brown crepe, with accessories of the same shade, and a shoulder bouquet of orchids.

Mrs. Ratliff is the eldest daughter of Mrs. William S. Sale and the late Mr. Sale, of this city, and is a member of a prominent family. She was graduated in 1937 from Meredith College, Raleigh, and since her graduation has taught in the schools at Concord and Garner.

Mr. Ratliff is the son of Rev. Henry M. Ratliff and Mrs. Ratliff, of Del Rio, Texas. He is a graduate of the University of Texas and attended the School of Religion at Duke University, Durham.

Following a brief wedding trip Rev. and Mrs. Ratliff will make their home at Jordontown, Texas, where the bridegroom is pastor of the First Methodist church.
