Prof. Mr. Dzudi, do you know what happened in 1776?
Fosh: 1776? Gosh! I can't even remember what happened last night.

SOCIETY

Parent-Teacher Association Meets Tuesday Afternoon

The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the school auditorium Tuesday afternoon with a splendid attendance. Rev. H. F. Duncan, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the devotional, using as his subject, "The Ideal Parent, Teacher and Child."

Mrs. J. Mark McAdams, president, presided over the business session, which featured routine matters.

The program was under the direction of Miss Ruth Atkinson, and consisted of a Thanksgiving playlet by the students of the fourth grade and a health playlet and a group of songs by the seventh grade students. A feature of the program was the fashion show of woolen dresses made this year in class by the second year home economics students. The dresses were modeled by the students.

Attendance awards went to Miss Josephine Paul's seventh grade in the elementary school, and Misses Elizabeth Anderson's and Mary Holland's grades tied for the prize in the high school. Each class was awarded one dollar.
