

THE ELKIN TRIBUNE

Elkin
"The Best Little Town in North Carolina"

Elkin
Gateway to Roaring Gap and the Blue Ridge

VOL. No. XXIX. No. 3

ELKIN, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1939

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ABOUT THIS AND THAT
There's a lot to be done around here before you nine readers get your hands on this particular issue of The Tribune, and so naturally we were expecting Simpson, the right handed man with the left handed brain, to turn up with another of his scoop pictures and thus help fill up this column and save us some work. But, true to form, we haven't seen or heard hide nor hair of the gentleman.

It may be just as well, for the picture of Adolf Hitler published here last week as he was trying to sell Mr. William V. Holcomb on his Strength-Through-Joy movement, has caused us some trouble. In the first place, Mr. Holcomb says he doesn't care to be addressed as "Herr Holcomb," and we've had a wire from the State Department at Washington saying that Cordell Hull, secretary of state, has received a protest from Germany. It seems the Germans don't want Mr. Holcomb liberated even if Adolf did.

So there it goes. And we, with this Christmas edition on our hands, have enough to worry about without everyone jumping on us. Still, in case Simpson should turn up with any unusual pictures we will pass them along, for we feel it our duty to keep our readers informed of what is going on. It appears that our readers haven't been so well informed as to events pictured in the last two photographs, for we've yet to see anyone who was present at the scene when the photos were made—not even those shown.

Oh well, when one can bring out a scoop that even scoops those pictured, one is really going to town in the way of a scoop, one is.

Or is one?
Elkin's stop lights, when they get here, are to be wired so that both sides may be turned on red, stopping all traffic, in case of a fire alarm. Or so we've heard.

They still come in for the free theatre tickets The Tribune, through the cooperation of the Elk and Lyric theatres, gives away each week.

In making these pictures on the street, it has been surprising to note how many of the same people are here on Saturday afternoon. We've seen some of them so many times we've almost reached a speaking acquaintance.

Although Elkin's street decorations haven't been lighted up at this writing, it looks like a good job from here, and very attractive. What with the gaily decorated streets and this Christmas edition of The Tribune, the Christmas spirit (we didn't say "spirits"), should really start flowing. And after an exhaustive survey of all of Elkin's stores, we'll also say that there's no need to go dashing off to a larger town to do Christmas shopping. What we never could figure is why one wants to spend money to drive an automobile 50 or 80 miles to buy and pay more for an article that they could get here merely by coming down town.

It seems that Elkin's new jail is much more popular than the old one was. There's hardly a night that you won't see the light on when you pass there. But, what with all the conveniences of home and no cat to wind or clock to put out, it does have its advantages. Go get locked up sometime.

Marion Allen felt rather flattered over a recent picture of him which ran in this paper following the unveiling of the monument to Surry county soldiers at Dobson. Everyone told him what a good picture it was. Of course it wasn't Marion's fault that it was a rear view.

And did you hear about the L. B. Abernethy Sunday school class of the Elkin Methodist church going on a 'possum hunt one night a week or so ago? At least it was supposed to have been a 'possum hunt but turned out to be a dog hunt.

The only real excitement of the night was when a 'possum treed Doc. Abernethy in a persimmon tree. And he wouldn't let Doc. down until Fidel Sale explained the rules and regulations of 'possum hunting.

But don't pay any attention to anything we say.

I. L. HOLCOMB DIES SUDDENLY

Well Known Citizen and Churchman Succumbs at Center Home

FUNERAL HELD FRIDAY

Isaac Lee Holcomb, 82, died suddenly at his home at Center, three miles west of Yadkinville, Wednesday night at 10 o'clock. Mr. Holcomb had been in declining health for several months but ate a hearty supper and was as well as usual when he retired. Mr. Holcomb was born in Yadkin county April 16, 1857, a son of the late John B. and Polly Long Holcomb. He had spent his life in the county and was a retired farmer. He married Miss Maggie Holcomb 57 years ago. He was a member of Center Methodist church and always took an active part in church work and was a trustee of the church. He had been a justice of the peace. He was the last one of a family of four children.

Survivors include the widow, three children, Mrs. I. V. Weatherman, Mrs. D. E. Whitaker and Miss Ola Holcomb, of Center. Also nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren survive him.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Center church with the pastor, Rev. J. H. Green, in charge, assisted by Rev. Milner A. Cox and Rev. R. L. Speer. Burial followed in the church cemetery. Grandsons were pall bearers.

Mr. Holcomb held the respect of his neighbors and all who knew him and he will be missed in his community.

Different Village

Tourist—What a quaint little village! Truly one-half the world is ignorant of how the other half lives.

Native—Not in this village, Mister; not in this village.

Ladies, for GIFTS for HIM Follow the Wise Men to The Men's Shop

THE BEST
GIFT IS ONE
HE CAN WEAR!

Luxury for him that's not costly for you—you'll find that to be the rule when you visit The Men's Shop for his Christmas gift. And you'll want to visit us, for we are a man's store and know what men like and prefer. Why not come in right away and make your selections early.

SHIRTS—and Manhattan shirts especially—will prove the answer for him. We have them in all colors and in whites. $2.00 Up He'll go for these.....

IF YOU love him a million but can only spend $1.00, then by all means select one of our Priestly or Cheney Ties. He'll like our $1.00 distinctive styles.....

FLATTER his taste for fine things with a pair of pajamas by Manhattan or Wilson Bros. We have styles men like..... $2.00

GIVE him a glad hand (gloves) from our choice collection. All newest styles and leathers. All sizes..... $1.50 Up

GIFTS HE'LL APPRECIATE

HE'LL REALLY MEAN "THANKS" IF YOU GIVE GIFTS LIKE THESE

SMOKING JACKETS—Here's a gift he'll really go for and revel in... and you'll get more joy, too. We'll be glad to have $6.50 Up you see them any time.

HICKOK JEWELRY—He will like a neat tie clasp or pin, watch or key chain, cuff links, etc. Why not see our assortment today and make your selection?..... $1.00

LEATHER JACKETS—The very thing for sports wear and bad weather, and chances are he has been secretly wanting one. Select $8.90 his now.....

GLADSTONE BAGS—Even if he's not planning to go somewhere, he'll be glad to have a nice bag to lend to the neighbors. Fine leather. $6.90 A model of beauty.....

BILLFOLDS—A thoughtful gift, fine to carry auto drivers' license, receipts and other papers in even when money is scarce. $1.00 Up Fine leather.....

SWEATERS—Santa threw away his red flannels when he saw our assortment of wool sweaters, they're that warm! Silpover, button and zipper styles. Come $2.00 Up in today.....

HICKOK BELT SETS—A Hickok belt and buckle set will prove a useful gift. Fine leather belts, attractive, initialed $1.00 Up buckles.....

Space doesn't permit us to list all the gifts we have here for men—You'll find many more when you pay us a visit.

HE never has enough socks. Why not some of these? Boxes of 2, 3 and 4 pairs, as you prefer. And only, per box $1.00

GIVE him a gift he'll carry next to his heart... handkerchiefs. We have them packed 3 or 6 in a smart gift box. Each— $1.00

THE MEN'S SHOP

ELKIN'S QUALITY STORE

HERMAN GUYER

BARRETT LANKFORD

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to loosen germ laden phlegm, increase secretion and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding that you are to like the way it quickly always the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

HANES UNDERWEAR Belk-Doughton Co. ELKIN, N. C.

"AS COMFORTABLE AS A BIRD-DOG BY THE FIRE"

"Yes, sir, it was a good hunting day—clear and cold. And I can tell you I was glad I had changed from Summer underwear. With Hanes middleweight WINTER SETS, I felt as snug as Ole Rambler... bird-dreaming by the fire. Matter of fact, I don't feel all padded up here indoors either."

That's the big point about HANES WINTER SETS. They're middleweight—help equalize your body heat indoors and out. You feel spruce and trim, too... with the gentle, athletic support of the HANESKINT Crotch-Guard. This reinforced vent has no buttons to bother you. Pick one of the popular WINTER SET styles. Have your HANES Dealer show them to you. P. H. Hanes Knitting Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

HANES WINTER SETS 50¢ to 79¢ THE GARMENT

Pick the combination that suits you best. Wear a sleeveless or short-sleeve undershirt. Then select a pair of Crotch-Guard Shorts (figure above), Knit Shorts, or Crotch-Guard Wind-Shields. Combed yarn... or 10% wool.

HANES HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION $1 OTHERS 75¢ to $2 Ankle-length legs. Long or short sleeves. Plenty of easy movement at shoulders, crotch and under arms. Nothing to pinch or pull. Buttons, buttonholes, cuffs and seams all sewed securely.

DROP IN AT OUR FRIENDLY STORE FOR HANES UNDERWEAR SYDNOR-SPAINHOUR ELKIN, N. C.

ELKIN'S QUALITY STORE SELLS HANES UNDERWEAR Herman Guyer The Men's Shop Barrett Lankford