

We Extend Greetings
And a Personal Message
To Our Friends and Customers

Without the patronage and good wishes of the hundreds of fine people of this entire section, our store would be unable to present such a fine array of gift merchandise this Christmas. We depend on you—and we want you to depend on us for high quality, fair price and prompt, courteous service. We invite you to make our store your store, and we pass on our very sincere thanks as well as the thanks of all our employees, in the form of a better home store and bigger values.
