Miss Etta Green is Bride of Odell Lawrence

Announcement was made last Wednesday of the marriage on Thanksgiving Day of Miss Etta Eya Green and William Odell Lawrence, both of this city. The wedding was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage in Hillsville, Va., with Rev. E. B. Randall, pastor of the church, officiating.

For her wedding the bride wore a costume suit of brown wool with accessories in the same shade.

Mrs. Lawrence is the daughter of James Green, of Ronda, and the late Mrs. Green. She has resided here for a number of years, where she operates the Ideal Bauty Shoppe.

Mr. Lawrence is the son of Mrs. Thomas F. Lawrence and the late Mr. Lawrence, of Elkin, and is prominently identified with the business and religious life of the town. He is associated with Lawrence Dry Cleaners.

After January 15 Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence will be at home in their new home which is nearing completion on North Bridge street.

Shunata-Castevens Wedding Is Solemnized Thursday

Miss Pauline Shunata and Howard Welborn Castevens, both of this city, were married Thursday afternoon at the home of Rev. J. L. Powers, on Elk Spur street, with Rev. Powers officiating, using the ring ritual of the Baptist church. The ceremony was attended only by a few intimate friends of the couple.

For her wedding the bride wore an advance spring costume of gray with harmonizing accessories.

Mrs. Castevens is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Shunata, of Crumpler. She is a graduate of Grace Hospital School of Nursing, Banner Elk, and for the past several months has been a member of the staff of registered nurses at Hugh Chatham Memorial hospital.

Mr. Castevens is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Castevens, of Jonesville, and is associated with the Lyric Theatre here.

Mr. and Mrs. Castevens will be at home at an apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Reece on Bridge street.
