W. C. T. U. to Meet Tuesday Afternoon

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held Tuesday afternoon, January 16, at 3:30, at the home of Mrs. E. C. James on West Main Street. All members are invited to attend.

Rev. and Mrs. Duncan Entertain Board of Stewards

Rev. and Mrs. Herman F. Duncan entertained the Board of Stewards of the Methodist church at a turkey dinner at the parsonage on Market street Monday evening. Covers were placed for fifteen. Guests in addition to the board members were Rev. J. S. Hiatt, superintendent of the Elkin district of the Western N. C. conference, and Rev. L. B. Abernethy, conference Mission Secretary. Following the dinner the monthly business meeting of the board was held.

Mrs. Cox Is Book Club Hostess Friday Evening

Mrs. W. C. Cox entertained members of the Round Dozen Book Club at the fortnightly meeting Friday evening at her home on Gwyn Avenue. Rook was played at three tables during the evening. In the games, the high score award went to Mrs. H. F. Laffoon and the runner-up prize to Mrs. J. Coke Marion.

Mrs. H. P. Graham was a special guest in addition to the club members.

A dessert course was served at the conclusion of the play.

Mrs. Gwyn Is Hostess to Two-Four Club Thursday

Mrs. Paul Gwyn delightfully entertained members of the Two-Four Bridge Club and several visitors at a bridge-luncheon Thursday at her home on Gwyn Avenue. Upon the arrival of the guests at one o'clock luncheon was served from card tables in the living room. During the afternoon bridge was played at two tables. At the final count of scores the high score award went to Mrs. Errol Hayes and the runner-up prize to Mrs. Raymond Chatham.

Mission Circle Meets Thursday Evening

Circle number four of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Hugh Parks, on Circle Court, with Mrs. Max Boyles associate hostess.

Mrs. Boyles, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. The topic, "The Beginnings of Woman's Work," was presented by Miss Ophelia Paul and Mrs. Hugh Royall.

The pledge service was a feature of the meeting.

Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour to the seventeen members attending.

Owen Gwyn Celebrates Tenth Birthday Anniversary

Owen Gwyn celebrated his tenth birthday anniversary with a delightful party Wednesday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gwyn, on Gwyn Avenue. The guest list included twenty-five girls and boys. Bingo was enjoyed during the afternoon with the major prize going to Julia Bryan at the conclusion of the play.

In the dining room a festive scene was centered around a beautifully decorated birthday cake, bearing ten lighted candles. The guests were served ices and cake and favors were cellophane bags of candy.

Miss Burcham Is Hostess at Enjoyable Party

Miss Beatrice Burcham was hostess at an enjoyable party at her home in Jonesville Wednesday evening. Potted plants were used in the living room, where tables were placed for rook, bridge and rummy. In the games scoring honors in bridge went to Miss Ruth Mayberry and Peyton White, in rummy to Leonard Shepherd and in rook to Mrs. James Burcham and W. E. Burcham.

At the conclusion of the play a tempting collation was served buffet style.

Fifteen guests enjoyed the hospitality of the hostess.

Mathis-Felts Marriage Is Announced

Announcement is made today of the marriage on Christmas Eve of Miss Pearl Josephine Mathis, of Swan Creek, to John Brady Felts, Jr., of this city. The marriage was solemnized in Independence, Va., with Rev. L. D. Mayberry, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

For her wedding the bride wore a spring dress of navy blue with black accessories.

Mrs. Felts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jones Mathis, of Swan Creek, and was formerly associated with the Rose store here.

Mr. Felts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Felts, Sr., of this city, and is a member of the sales force of the Belk-Doughton company.

Mr. and Mrs. Felts are making their home temporarily with the bridegroom's parents.

Legion Auxiliary Meets Monday Evening

The Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. I. C. Yates on Church street, with Mrs. Fred Colhard and Mrs. M. C. Whitener associate hostesses.

The usual business was dispensed with and the time was devoted to a most interesting talk by Miss Lena Lewis, of the school faculty, guest speaker. Miss Lewis spoke on the present European war situation and of the evils of propaganda, both in America and abroad. Her talk was timely and informative. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Fred Colhard.

A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program. A tempting collation was served.
