Y.W.A. Meets Tuesday Evening

The Alda Grayson Y.W.A. of the Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Evelyn Arnold, with three members and one visitor, Miss Cornelia Lineberry, present. Miss Bertha Adams was in charge of the program, "God's Purpose Working Out," and each member presented an interesting part of the program. The devotional period was presented by each member reading a piece of scripture and a verse of some song was sung after each scripture reading. The closing song was "There Is a Name I Love to Hear," and the closing prayer was "That we may take our part in continuing to carry out God's plan of the world," led by the leader, Miss Bertha Adams.

Routine business was discussed and the hymn for the year is "How Firm the Foundation," and the watchword is "Be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord." Refreshments were served during the social hour.
