May their removal to Elkin prove most pleasant and profitable. This additional population means much to our section, and it is our sincere hope that our firm may mean much to every individual through the service we are in position to give in furniture and home furnishings, plus the convenience of easy terms to those who desire assistance in furnishing new homes, or in making additions to what they now have. Again let us extend the hand of welcome, and pledge our best efforts to be of service in any way possible.
