

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

Miss Eva Hancock was hostess to five tables of bridge and rummy Saturday evening at the Brady hotel.

Narcissi and carnations were attractively arranged about the room, and all appointments were in the Valentine motif. After several progressions the high score was made by Miss Emma Comer in the bridge games, and by Mrs. Frank Riggs in rummy.

At the conclusion of the games Miss Hancock served a salad course to the following guests: Mrs. J. T. Threatte, Mrs. J. W. Comer, Mrs. Emma Mock, Mrs. A. P. Cobb, Mrs. P. B. Folger,

Important for Women

A weak, run-down condition often gives a foothold to functional dysmenorrhea, causing much periodical distress from headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain for women. CARDUI so often helps in such cases, for it sharpens appetite, boosts flow of gastric juices; so improves digestion, helps build physical resistance. CARDUI, taken a few days before and during "the time," is another way to help periodical distress. Used 50 years.

FINNISH PREMIER LAUDS RED CROSS

Washington—Risto Ryti, Finnish Prime Minister, cabled thanks to the American Red Cross for war relief supplies—including 18 tons of anaesthetics—which have been moving into Finland since the outbreak of hostilities.

Chairman Norman H. Davis, in announcing the Finnish Prime Minister's cable, stated that Finnish relief supplies from the American Red Cross are moving periodically out of New York in answer to urgent requests from the Finnish Red Cross. As an emergency measure, the first medical supplies needed by the small northern nation were purchased in London and transported by plane to Helsinki, it was explained.

Supplies now en route to Helsinki, Mr. Davis said, include ten motor ambulances, 25 hospital tents with a capacity of 50 patients each, and large quantities of medical supplies and clothing. In addition, $30,000 worth of miscellaneous drugs and 20,000 blankets are being readied for shipment in New York, he said.

MANY REQUESTS FOR TERRACING

New Equipment Will Enable County to Provide a Better Service

PREVENTS SOIL WASTE

The Surry county farm agent's office has had more requests for terracing this year than ever before during the time he has been connected with farm work in the county, A. P. Cobb, assistant county farm agent, has stated.

Already enough farms have been secured to keep all terracing machinery in the county busy for 12 months.

The terracing work, scheduled to start last fall, was delayed because of the late arrival of new terracing equipment, which was not delivered until December. Due to bad weather, work could not be done.

The terracing work will begin just as soon as the weather permits, Mr. Cobb said. A new tractor and a caterpillar terracer have been purchased, and old equipment, which has been doing all the work in the past, is available. Both of these units will be operated full time when work is begun.

One of the reasons so much interest is being shown in terracing this year is because farmers realize it prevents soil erosion, the assistant county agent said. Another reason is that there will be more farmers participating in the soil conservation program than ever before due to the new tobacco sign-up that has gone into effect for 1940.

In recent laboratory tests, CAMELS burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them. That means, on the average, a smoking plus equal to
