Mrs. Gough Is Hostess
The Happy Hour Sewing club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Charlie Gough at Brooks Cross Roads. After the sewing period hearts were played at two tables. The Valentine motif was carried out in a delicious refreshment course. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. N. Ireland, Jr.

Wagoner-Haynes Marriage Is Announced
Announcement is made today of the marriage of Miss Blanche Wagoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wagoner, of Cherry Lane, to Hugh Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Haynes, of Jonesville. The marriage was solemnized Saturday at the home of Scott Nixon, J. P., at Mountain Park, with Mr. Nixon performing the ceremony.
At present Mr. and Mrs. Haynes are making their home with the bridegroom's parents.

L. F. Walker Is Host To Class Officers Friday Evening
L. F. Walker, teacher of the Walker Bible class of the First Baptist church, was host to officers of the class at a dinner meeting Friday evening at his home on Church street. Covers were placed for W. S. Beddingfield, Dr. M. O. Fox, O. K. Richardson, Linville Norman, Howard Elledge, Jack Freeman, P. G. Walker and Raymond Vestal.
Following the dinner a business meeting was held, with the president, W. S. Beddingfield, presiding.

Adams-Macey Marriage Is Announced
Announcement is made today of the marriage on December 13, 1939, of Miss Eva Elizabeth Adams of Ronda, and Joe Clarence Macey of Jonesville. The marriage was solemnized at Independence, Virginia.

For her wedding the bride wore a dress of blue plaid woolen with accessories of black.
Mrs. Macey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Adams of Ronda. Mr. Macey is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Macey. He is associated with the City Barber Shop here.

Announcement Is Made of Hemric-Pardue Marriage
Of interest to friends of the couple is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Pauline Hemric to Lytle Pardue, both of Ronda. The marriage was solemnized Saturday, February 17, at Independence, Virginia.
For her marriage the bride wore a spring dress of navy with black accessories.

Mrs. Pardue is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hemric of Ronda, and Mr. Pardue is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Pardue of Ronda.
They are making their home temporarily with the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker Entertains at Luncheon Saturday
Mrs. W. W. Whitaker entertained at a delightful luncheon Saturday at one o'clock at her home on Church street. Luncheon was served buffet style. The dining room table was centered with a bowl of yellow acacia on a mirror placque. Ivory candles in five branched candelabra were used on either end of the table. The same flowers were used in the living room.
Covers were placed for Mesdames Earl M. Hodel, E. W. McDaniel, R. C. Freeman, Errol Hayes, J. W. L. Benson, T. F. Cooley, George Royall, H. C. Graham and T. R. Sample and Miss Emalene Neaves.
Mrs. J. W. L. Benson drew the prize among the guests.

Mrs. Carl Rose Fetes Son on Birthday Anniversary
Honoring her son, Jack, on his ninth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Carl Rose entertained at a delightful party Friday afternoon. The guest list included twenty girls and boys, schoolmates of the honor guest.
A number of outdoor games were enjoyed during the afternoon.
In the dining room a patriotic motif suggestive of Washington's birthday, was attractively arranged. Ices and cakes were served and the guests were given favors of miniature hatchets and baskets of candies.

Mrs. Rose was assisted in entertaining by Misses Irene Bauguss and Doris Ashley.

Grade Mothers Fete Senior Class
The grade mothers of the Senior class of the high school, Mesdames H. P. Graham, H. F. Lafand, R. C. Freeman, Errol Hayes, J. W. L. Benson, T. F. Cooley, George Royall, H. C. Graham and C. A. McNeill, honored members of the class at a party Friday evening in the city hall. A patriotic motif of red, white and blue, suggestive of Washington's birthday, was used in the appointments of the seven tables which were placed for various games. Small hatchets were used as place cards. Table prizes were awarded to Miss Faye Hiatt, Miss Frances Alexander, Miss Margaret Settle, Miss Lestine Lawrence and Bill Graham.
Refreshments, consisting of ice cream, pop corn, cakes and candy were served the guests. Twenty-two members of the class and Miss Alice Dixon, class advisor, enjoyed the hospitality of the hostesses.

Dutch Supper Is Held Friday Evening for Class
Members of the L. B. Abernethy class of the Methodist Sunday school, composed of young men and women of the church, enjoyed a Dutch supper at the church Friday evening. Covers were placed for forty at small tables in the church parlors. The appointments were suggestive of the Valentine season.
Dr. R. B. Harrell, class teacher, was master of ceremonies. Brief talks were made by Dr. Harrell, Rev. Herman F. Duncan, pastor of the church, Rev. L. B. Abernethy, for whom the class was named, Rev. J. S. Hiatt and Dr. J. G. Abernethy. A quartette composed of Miss Carolyn Lillard, Miss Josephine Paul, John Sagar and Van Dillon, Jr., gave several numbers.
Following the business session and the supper a number of games were enjoyed.

Parent-Teacher Meet and Other Activities Outlined
The February meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the elementary school auditorium Tuesday afternoon, February 27, at 3:30. The program, in observance of Founders' Day, will be in charge of Mrs. E. F. McNeer, and will be a pageant, "As Told By Candles."
At 2 o'clock, preceding the meeting, an educational picture, "Safri on Wheels," will be shown in the school auditorium. The scene of the picture is laid in Africa and it is highly entertaining. There will be no admission charge.
Between the showing of the picture, which will be about one hour, and the hour of the meeting, a class in Parent-Education will be held. The study will be in charge of Mrs. E. C. James.
This promises to be one of the most interesting programs for the year and the public is extended a cordial invitation to attend. New members are invited.

Methodist Group Meeting at Church Monday Afternoon
The group meeting of the circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met at the church Monday afternoon with a good attendance.
Mrs. George Royall, president, presided and conducted the devotionals, using as her subject, "I Surrender Myself."
Mrs. W. M. Evans gave a re-

Free Theatre Tickets Go To These

Tickets are good for admission to both the Lyric and Elk theatres. More pictures will be published next week.

port of the mission work of the Methodist church in Poland, and Mrs. J. Mark McAdams gave an interesting paper on the life and work of J. Allen Young, missionary to China.
A vocal solo, "Lord, Speak to Me," by Mrs. H. P. Graham, accompanied at the piano by Miss Carolyn Lillard, was the concluding number on the program.
Plans were made during the meeting for a series of prayer services to be held preceding the annual Easter program at the church. Mrs. Herman F. Duncan was appointed as chairman of a committee on arrangements for the meetings.

Finland Is Subject of Study For Club Meeting
Mrs. A. B. Somers presented an interesting study on Finland at the meeting of the Wednesday Afternoon Study Club at the home of Mrs. Errol Hayes, on Church street, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Somers told of the nation as it was before the devastating war now in progress there and of the heroism of the Finnish people in protecting their independence. Her talk was illustrated with pictures from papers and periodicals.
News events were given by Mrs. D. G. Smith and they were of more than usual interest as they were read from current issues of English newspapers.
Mrs. Marion Allen, club president, presided over a brief business session, which featured routine matters.
A prettily appointed salad course, in which the Valentine motif was accentuated, was served to the following members: Mesdames Hugh Royall, Marion Allen, R. C. Freeman, J. H. Beeson, Gariand Johnson, Fletcher Harris, D. G. Smith, Earl M. Hodel and A. B. Somers.

The windstorm here on St. Valentine's day did right much damage. Some buildings were unroofed and lots of large trees uprooted.
Owing to the very rainy day last Sunday, no services were held at Bethel church. A quartet singing was to have been held in the afternoon, also preaching in the evening.
The little Smithey twins have been taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triplette. They were very fortunate in being placed here where they will receive love and protection.
Mrs. W. A. Pardue and family had as their guest for a few days last week her daughter, Mrs. Jones Vanhoy, of near State Road.
Flake, Charles and Bobby Gilliam, sons of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam, were absent from school all last week on account of illness.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Myers and little daughter, Carolyn Elizabeth, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wade Green at Clingman last Saturday evening, and enjoyed an oyster supper.
Mr. and Mrs. David R. Gilliam and children, D. R., Jr., and Carol, and Miss Jettie Triplette and sister, of Jonesville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Triplette last Thursday evening.

Misses Alma Nichols, Myrtle Mathis and Vennye Mathis spent last Wednesday night here visiting their friend and classmate, Miss Norma Gilliam, after they all attended a Valentine party given for the seniors of Ronda high school.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Triplette have been confined to their home with illness for the past week.

Where Do Pins Go?
Marta: "I can't find a single pin. Where do they all go, anyway?"
Matty: "It's hard to tell, because they're pointed in one direction and headed in another."
Was Absent-Minded
The absent-minded professor met his son in school one morning and said: "Good morning, John. How's your father?"
