

KIWANIS CLUB HONORS SCOUTS

Col. Wm. A. Blair, of Winston-Salem, Speaker at Weekly Meeting

KIWANIS SIGNS ERECTED

Col. Wm. A. Blair, of Winston-Salem, who organized the first Boy Scout troop in that city in 1912, was speaker at the weekly meeting of the Elkin Kiwanis club at Hotel Elkin, Thursday evening, the local Boy Scout troops and their leaders being guests of the club.

Col. Blair urged the Kiwanians to give the scouts every consideration, stating that boys are the things men are made of, and that while Elkin has a number of wonderful assets, the greatest of these are its young people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mark McAdams, who have been very active in the work of the Boy and Girl Scouts, were presented a Chatham blanket each, which was donated by J. L. Lillard and presented by Kiwanian W. M. Allen. The program was in charge of Kiwanian E. E. Hayes, who is chairman of the committee on boys' and girls' work.

The speaker was introduced by Banks Newman, scout commissioner, of Winston-Salem. Each member of the troops was asked to stand and introduce himself and give the number of the troop to which he belongs.

During the business session Franklin Folger, chairman of the membership committee, introduced Rev. J. S. Haitt as a new member of the club. The house committee, of which Gilbert Meed is chairman, announced that Kiwanis Welcome signs had been placed on the main thoroughfares leading into the city.

F. W. Graham was a guest of Kiwanian Hugh Royall; J. L. Lillard, with Kiwanian E. E. Hayes, and Edworth Harris with Kiwanian Carl Boyles.

Due to the fact that the Kiwanis room of the hotel is being redecorated, the meeting this week will be held in the main dining room of the hotel, starting at seven o'clock.

Doctor (after examining patient): "I don't like the looks of your husband, Mrs. Brown."
Mrs. Brown: "Neither do I, doctor, but he's good to our children."

Lyric Offering Three Movies For Dollar Days

The Lyric Theatre is featuring three excellent movies for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and extends an invitation to shoppers to see these pictures while here for Elkin Dollar Days.

Thursday the Lyric will show the Jones Family in "Too Busy to Work," and an entertaining cartoon.

Friday a complete change of program will be offered, featuring one of the most thrilling war pictures ever filmed, a picture which has been shown in Elkin once, and which is being brought back through popular demand. The picture, "The Road to Glory," stars Fredric March, Warner Baxter and Lionel Barrymore.

Saturday Joe E. Brown will entertain in "Beware Spooks." A cartoon, serial and comedy will also be shown.

Eagle Offering Big Bargains In Good Furniture

The Eagle Furniture Company, progressive furniture store of Elkin, is cooperating in Elkin Dollar Days here Thursday, Friday and Saturday, by offering many outstanding values for the event.

A liberal discount will be allowed for cash purchases, or convenient credit terms may be arranged.

An advertisement located elsewhere in this issue lists a few of the numerous bargains offered by this store and their cash prices. Everyone interested in buying new furniture for the home is urged to turn to this advertisement for complete details.

Stresses the Importance of Guarding Eyes

The Duke Power Company is this week calling attention to the fact that every school child needs light conditioning at home if their eyesight is to be protected. The company suggests, in an advertisement in this issue, that the places where they do their home work be light conditioned by use of adequate and proper illumination, such as provided by an I. E. S. lamp, which is said to provide not only good seeing conditions, but greatly improves the decorative effect in the room.

Full details may be had by turning to the Duke Power Company advertisement.

Hayes & Speas Offer Discount For Cash Buys

Hayes & Speas, Elkin's oldest furniture firm, is announcing attractive discounts for cash as their part in value-giving for Elkin Dollar Days, to be held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Hayes & Speas features everything that one expects to find at a furniture store, including household and kitchen furniture, stoves, ranges, washing machines, etc. They are also dealers for Philco radios.

Shoppers are invited to visit the store while taking advantage of Dollar Days.

Elk Theatre To Offer Good Shows For Dollar Days

The Elk Theatre, Elkin's newest movie house, has booked good shows which will be on display here during Elkin Dollar Days, and the management extends an invitation to Dollar Day shoppers to drop in and see a show while here during the week-end.

Thursday the Elk will offer "Full Confession," with Victor McLaglen and Sally Eilers. In addition a Walt Disney cartoon and the latest news reel will be shown.

Friday and Saturday a thrilling western drama, "Arizona Kid," starring Roy Rogers and George Hayes, will be shown, together with Dick Tracy's G-Men, a new chapter play, and a comedy and cartoon.
