

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY CAPITAL

The February meeting of the Dobson Woman's club was held in the club house last Thursday evening. The president, Mrs. J. W. Comer, presided. The club song was the opening number, followed by the Litany. All the department and committee reports were heard and unanimously adopted.

After the business meeting, Miss Emma Comer introduced Atty. Fred Folger, of Mt. Airy, who spoke to the club on "Democracy and the World Conditions." Mr. Folger's speech was timely and interesting and the club appreciated it.

Mrs. Rebecca Little rendered a piano solo. The attendance prize went to Mrs. F. F. Riggs. At the conclusion of the evening's program, the committee of the month served refreshments. The following composed the committee: Mrs. R. A. Freeman, chairman, Mrs. Rebecca Little, Mrs. Folger, Mrs. Robert Freeman, Jr., Mrs. Aubrey Moore, Mrs. Grady Cooper, Miss Emma Comer and Mrs. S. R. Coalson.

The Baptist Associational B. T. U. officers meeting was held at the Hotel Brady last Tuesday afternoon. Plans and programs were enthusiastically discussed for the next B. T. U. mass meeting to be held with Highland Park church in March, the date to be announced later.

The following new officers were elected for the Woman's club next year, as the present officers' terms will expire at the end of this year: president, Mrs. C. L. Folger; vice-president, Mrs. Thedford Sprinkle; recording secretary, Mrs. C. G. Comer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. L. Reece; treasurer, Mrs. Grady Cooper. These officers will be installed at the May meeting.

COOL SPRINGS

We of the Cool Springs community have been snowed under, and buried in muddy roads until we haven't had much news; just the usual run of flu, colds, and pneumonia. However those of us who have been obliged to leave cars parked out on roads away from home and made the remainder of our journeys through the mud have heartily wished that those who are so good at diverting North Carolina road funds had been forced to do a lot of traveling on our clay highways and by-ways, and more especially the by-ways; not many of us would pause to give them a lift.
