Jonesville Woman Passes Away From Pneumonia Attack

Mrs. Myra Messick Mathis, 76, died Friday night at her home in Jonesville from pneumonia. Mrs. Mathis became ill on Wednesday before her passing. She was a life-long resident of Yadkin county and a well-known woman. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bethel Messick, of Yadkin county and was the last surviving member of her family. She was married to James H. Mathis, of Jonesville, who passed away seven years ago. She was a member of the Jonesville Methodist church.

Surviving are four sons, J. Wesley and R. Baxter Mathis, of Washington, D. C.; Harvey W. Mathis, of High Point, and Charles G. Mathis, of Jonesville, and two daughters, Miss Mary Mathis, of Jonesville, and Miss Daisy Mathis, and twelve grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the late home. The rites were in charge of Rev. Dwight B. Mullis, pastor of the deceased, assisted by Rev. T. R. Howard, of North Wilkesboro. Interment was in the family plot in Hollywood cemetery here.

The following grandsons of the deceased served as pallbearers: Harold, Keith and Richard Mathis and a grandson-in-law, Sam Ligon, all of Washington, D. C.; Billy Mathis, of High Point, and James Mathis, of Jonesville. The beautiful floral tribute was carried by members of the Missionary society of the Jonesville church.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the last rites were: H. A. Cecil, M. W. Stump and G. R. Ray, of High Point; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ligon, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mathis, Mrs. Lucille Mathis Arnold and son, Don Arnold, and Keith and Richard Mathis, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Mathis, Barbara, Mickey, Vance and Billy Mathis and Ralph Arnold, Jr., of High Point, and J. G. and Ray Messick, of Winston-Salem.

Bon-Ton To Move Into New Home On East Main St.

The Bon-Ton Grill, operated by Ralph Triplett, will move into modern new quarters on East Main street and will be open for business Friday morning. The new building is much larger than the cafe's present quarters, and will be modern in every way. Attractive fixtures, a private dining room, a large airy kitchen and more adequate refrigeration facilities for the preservation of food will be among the many improvements.

The public is invited to visit the new Bon-Ton Friday or when convenient, to inspect the new quarters.

Housed in a new building which was constructed especially for the cafe, the new Bon-Ton will prove a credit to Elkin.

Chicken thieves used gas to stupefy poultry in a Maryland poultry house. They got away with 100 hens in one haul.

SOCIETY

Miss Cockerham is Hostess to Carrie Woodruff Circle
Miss Sarah Cockerham entertained the Carrie Woodruff Circle of the Y. W. A. of Elkin Valley Baptist church at her home Monday evening, with ten members present.
