Al Russ, formerly of High Point, will be in charge of the meat market.

Details of special values to mark the opening of the store here may be found in the A. & P. advertisement contained elsewhere in this issue.

CO. TEACHERS HEAR ADDRESS

S. Marion Justice Speaks Friday at County-Wide Meeting of Faculties

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

In a county-wide meeting held at Dobson Friday afternoon, Surry teachers heard an address by S. Marion Justice, director of guidance of North Carolina education.

Mr. Justice spoke on the individuality of students and stressed vocational placement for the greater development of individual talents, stating that each normal child was endowed with some individual talent, which if discovered and encouraged, would enable the child to better succeed in his chosen career and in this connection urged teachers to study the individual characteristics of the pupils in their respective classrooms and to assist them in the cultivation of their respective talents. He also placed great importance on each teacher in the school system understanding the individual pupil.

Reports of standing committees were heard during the business session over which President E. P. McLeod presided.

In a vote taken by the Surry teachers for new state officers, they voted overwhelmingly to support K. G. Phillips, of Winston-Salem, for the vice-presidency of the N. C. Educational Association. S. G. Hawfield, incumbent vice-president, will be elevated to the presidency at a meeting next Saturday.

BETHEL

The pastor, Rev. R. J. Pardue, preached at both morning and evening services here at Bethel last Sunday to good congregations.

Mrs. C. L. Morrison left last week to visit her daughter and family, Mrs. Weaver Hinson, of Hamptonville, for an indefinite time. She has been spending the winter months here with her son and family, Mr. W. T. Morrison. Since having received injuries several months ago in an accident, Mrs. Morrison has been unable to walk, and finds much pleasure in being in the homes of children as she is confined to her wheel-chair.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam and children, Charlie and Mary, visited Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam last Saturday night and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Harris and children, Jimmie and Faye, were also guests in this home Sunday.

Mrs. W. A. Pardue has not been so well the past week here at her home.

Colonel Green was confined to his home last Sunday with a severe cold.

Several from here have visited Charles Jones at the Davis hospital in Statesville, where he is being treated.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stewart and son, Hal, of Elkin, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Triplett last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McBride and little daughter, Betty Jane, visited his parents last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John McBride, and attended services at Bethel.

Mrs. Lincolnton Triplett is numbered among the sick here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Wood, Miss Pearl Wood, of High Point, and Mrs. Helen Snow, of Winston-Salem, visited relatives here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Myers and little daughter, Carolyn, spent last week-end at Clingman visiting his mother, Mrs. Fanny Myers.

Mrs. Robert Adams, who has been suffering an attack of pneumonia, is recovering, we are glad to note.
