The T. C. U. club will sponsor a public dance at the school gymnasium Friday evening, April 5. Claude Little and his orchestra from Mooresville will furnish music for the dance, which will begin at 9 o'clock. Proceeds will go to the welfare fund of the club.

Bids for the dance may be secured from Leonard Shepherd, chairman of the social committee of the club.

Young Peoples Department of Baptist S. S. Entertain

Members of the Young Peoples Department of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church entertained at a party in the Sunday school annex of the church Tuesday evening to honor the many new members of the department who have recently come here from Winston-Salem to reside.

The guests were greeted by Misses Willie Guyer, Agnes Gray and Hazel Byrd, T. L. Parnell, Flake Cooke and Paul Young, and directed to the reception rooms, which were lavishly decorated with spring flowers and greenery.

Leslie Reinhardt, superintendent of the department, Walter H. Combs, Miss Lucy Gray, and Miss Hazel Byrd were also on the reception committee and the games were under the direction of Mrs. E. C. James, Mrs. W. O. Hooper and Mrs. Lawrence Walls.

Punch and wafers were served during the evening by Miss Lucy Gray, Miss Lucille Phillips, Mrs. Jack Terrell, Mrs. Jake Jones and Miss Angess Gray.

Approximately 110 young people attended the delightful affair.

Miss Laffoon is Hostess at Dinner and Theatre Party

Miss Louise Laffoon delightfully entertained members of the T. and T. club at a dinner party at her home on Church Street Tuesday evening. Spring flowers were used throughout the home and as a centerpiece for the dinner table.

In addition to the regular club meeting date the event also marked the birthday anniversary of the hostess.

Following the dinner the guests were entertained at a theatre party.

Cox-Melton Wedding Is Solemnized

The wedding of Miss Elenoir Grace Melton and Wiley Cox was solemnized Saturday, March 16, at high noon at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. J. W. Calloway, of Mountain Park.

Mrs. Cox is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Job Melton, of Jonesville, Route 1. She is a graduate of Ronda high school, being a member of the class of 1938.

Mr. Cox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cox, of Pleasant Hill. He is connected with the City Transit company at Elkin.

Holiday Visitors Are Feted at Numerous Parties

Misses Virginia Whitaker, Reeves Pollard and Algene Nelly, of Winston-Salem, holiday guests of Miss Dorothy Harrell, and Miss Betty Messenger, of Hartford, Conn., guest of her aunts, Mesdames Raymond and Alex Chatam, were extensively feted during their visit.

On Saturday Mrs. Gavin Dortch, aunt of Miss Harrell, entertained the visitors at luncheon at Hotel Elkin. The guests were later entertained at the Dortch home for games.

On Saturday evening Miss Harrell entertained at a dinner at 6:30 at her home on West Main street for the visitors and a number of young men from Winston-Salem. At eight o'clock several additional guests came in for dancing. In a dancing exhibition contest Miss Jo Barker was awarded a prize, a white rabbit, dressed in gay Easter finery.

Monday Miss Harrell entertained at a luncheon at one o'clock at her home. Covers were placed for sixteen, members of the high school and college set. Table prizes were awarded at the luncheon to Misses Algene Neely, Clyde Myers, Jo Barker and Lena Sale. On Monday evening Miss Mary Elizabeth Allen entertained the visitors at a buffet luncheon at her home on Church street.

Miss Day Is Bride of Russell Casey Saturday Afternoon

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Shelton Irene Day became the bride of Russell Casey at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. David W. Day, Rev. Mr. Day, father of the bride, performed the ritual. Only immediate relatives and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony.

In the living room an improvised altar was arranged with greenery and spring flowers.

Miss Bernice Wellborn rendered the wedding music. The traditional wedding marches were used as a processional and recessional and during the ceremony Miss Wellborn played "O, Promise Me."

The bride wore a spring suit of poudre blue with accessories of dusty rose and black. Her shoulder bouquet was of white carnations and valley lilies.

Following the ceremony the guests were directed to the dining room by Misses Marie Casey and Gertha Collins and Mrs. Joe Cockerham, where a handsome two-tier wedding cake was sliced and served with moulded loaves.

Mrs. Casey is the only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Day and was graduated from Elkin high school with the class of 1938. Mr. Casey is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Young Casey of the Cool Springs community. He is employed with the Federal Furniture company.

At present Mr. and Mrs. Day are making their home with the bride's parents.

Miss Sadie Mathis Is Bride of Felix Swaim

Miss Sadie Allene Mathis became the bride of Felix Swaim at the home of her parents in the Bethel community last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The pastor of the bride, Rev. R. J. Pardue, heard the vows, using the ring ceremony.

The bride wore a costume of navy blue with matching accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of sweet peas and valley lilies.

Mrs. Swaim is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Franklin Mathis, of Route 1, Jonesville. She was graduated with the class of 1938 of Ronda high school, and for some time has held a position with Rose's store at Elkin.

Mr. Swaim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Swaim, of Cycle. He attended school at Jonesville and is engaged in farming with his parents, where they will reside.

A delicious wedding dinner was served by the parents of the bride to the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Swaim and son, H. L., Jr., Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Weatherman and daughter, Miss Vermelle, Mrs. W. W. Weatherman, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Maxwell and daughter, Marilyn, of Elkin, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Felts and Philip Mauldin, State Road, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, Eugene Jones, Misses Dorothy Coram, of Booneville, Louise Morrison, Pauline Morrison, Ethel Adams, Vesta Mathis, Edith Walker and Dorothy Colhard, of Elkin, Edith Crater, of Wilkesboro, and Lorraine Crater, of Boone.

Parent-Teachers Hear Lecture and Elect Officers

Members of the Parent-Teacher Association heard a lecture by the Rt. Rev. Douglas L. Rights, of Winston-Salem, observed Father's Night and elected officers at the March meeting Tuesday evening in the elementary school building.

The meeting opened with the devotional period in charge of Rev. J. S. Hiatt, and the speaker of the evening was introduced by Prof. Z. H. Dixon, former superintendent of the city schools. The Rev. Mr. Rights gave an illustrated lecture on a tour of the Yadin and Great Pee Dee river, which was informative and of more than usual interest, as many of the scenes were laid in the valley of the Yadin in this vicinity. The pictures were in natural color.

During the business meeting officers were elected as follows to serve for the 1940-41 school term: President, Mrs. J. Harold Click; vice-president, Mrs. J. Mark McAdams; secretary, Miss Emma Cooke, and treasurer, Miss Minnie Ruth McNeill. Routine reports and other business was dispatched. Mrs. I. C. Yates, chairman of the pre-school clinic, announced that the local group had received a certificate of recognition from the National Congress of P.-T. A. for the outstanding work in this line.

During a social hour the hospitality committee, composed of Mrs. E. F. McNeer, Mrs. T. A. Leeper and Mrs. E. G. Click, served punch and wafers. A vocal quartette, "April Eyes," by Mesdames E. G. Click, E. F. McNeer, J. H. Beeson and H. P. Graham, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. Mark McAdams, was also enjoyed.

Attendance awards went to Miss Betty Harris' fifth grade in the elementary school and Miss Alice Dixon's eleventh grade in the high school.
