HIATT IS T.C.U. GUEST SPEAKER

Rev. J. S. Hiatt was guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the T. C. U. club Monday evening at the clubhouse. Rev. Mr. Hiatt, who is a highly entertaining speaker, spoke on "The Meaning of Easter." Russell Burcham, club president, presided over the business session, at which time it was decided to raise the limit of club membership from 40 to 60 members to take care of the employees of the mill from the Winston plant, who have come here to reside. It was also decided that the club would sponsor a dance on the evening of April 5 at the school gymnasium, proceeds of the dance to be used for the club welfare fund.

George Stockton, Henry Cathey, James Frye and Mason Burcham were welcomed into membership in the club.

Webster called Washington "The Dismal City" and Mrs. John Adams called it "The Wilderness City."

AUSTIN

Roy R. Brown, of Fort Benning, Ga., is spending a short furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, at Austin. He was honored at a party at the home of Mr. Guy Cox Wednesday night. Games were enjoyed during the evening.

Mr. Marion Cockerham has been ill, but is improving, we are glad to note.

Miss Mabel Hayes, of Elkin, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hayes, at Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Brady Cheek, of Lomax, spent Sunday with Mrs. Cheek's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hawkins.

Mr. A. J. Barker, Jr., has been very ill, but is improving, we are glad to note.

Mrs. Mollie Privette, of Austin, spent part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Ivan Shaver, at Mountain Park.

Mr. Isaac Spicer and Mrs. Maude Casey Duncan were united in marriage March 18. Their friends wish them much happiness.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Due to the illness of our pastor, Rev. J. L. Powers, Mr. Everage, of Elkin, preached at Mountain View Sunday at the 11:00 o'clock hour. Mr. Everage delivered a wonderful sermon.

Miss Cardie Pardue, of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end here the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Henry Adams and Mrs. Tom Van Hoy and her mother, Mrs. Alma Pardue.

Rev. and Mrs. W. V. Brown were visitors here Easter Sunday. Rev. Brown delivered a wonderful message to the adult Sunday school class at Mountain View Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Swaim, of Winston-Salem, Mr. Zeno Tucker, of High Point, and Mr. John Tucker spent Easter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Tucker.

CALVES

Chris Davis, of Sylva, is one of several 4-H club boys in Jackson county who are fitting beef calves for the Asheville Fat Stock Show next fall.

MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED AT DOBSON

Marriage license have been issued to the following couples within the past week by Surry Register of Deeds Kermit Lawrence: Jack W. Taylor and Mary M. Pinnix, both of Mount Airy; Murray Morris Childress, of Lexington, and Lila May Byerly, of Linwood; C. Coleman Francis and Mary V. Pardue, both of Elkin.

PASTURES

Jones county is determined to improve its pastures, and several farmers are conducting demonstrations to determine the best rates of seeding and fertilization, reports F. F. Hendrix, farm agent of the State College Extension Service.

MOPPING

Farmers of Johnston county are planning to mop their cotton to control boll weevils, and are showing more interest in diversified farming than ever before, says M. A. Morgan, Extension farm agent.

BUILDING & LOAN IS OPENING 73rd SERIES

The Elkin-Jonesville Building and Loan Association is on Monday, April 1, opening its 73rd series, an advertisement in this issue of The Tribune points out.

With nearly 30 years of service to the people of Elkin and Jonesville and this section to its credit, the local building and loan association has a steadily increasing group of shareholders who have found the way to safe and consistent saving in this manner.

Hundreds of homes throughout this section were financed through the building and loan. Everyone is urged to take out shares in the new series whether planning to build a home or for other reasons.

KLONDIKE COW SETS NEW OFFICIAL RECORD

A seven year old Guernsey cow owned by Klondike Farm has just completed a new record, exceeding the average of the Guernsey breed for her age and class. The cow is Klondike Prolie, 3346281. Her official record was supervised by the North Carolina State College and has been announced by the American Guernsey Cattle Club as 14246.7 pounds of milk and 692.1 pounds of butter fat in class AA.

Klondike farm is owned by Thurmond Chatham, and is managed by T. F. Cooley.

EAGLE RADIO SALE IS TO END ON APRIL 1st

The Silver Jubilee sale of Emerson radios which has been under way at the Eagle Furniture Company here, local dealers, for the past several weeks, will come to an end April 1, when prices will be advanced to regular levels.

During the sale, prices on Emerson radios, described as "the world's biggest selling little radio," have been reduced in celebration of the Emerson company's silver jubilee. Worthwhile savings may be obtained provided those in the market for a radio buy before the sale ends.

TO SELL PROPERTY AT AUCTION ON APRIL 2nd

An absolute auction sale of the Miss Lynette Salmans property, located at Roaring River on highway No. 268, eight and one-half miles west of Elkin, will be held Tuesday, April 2, at 10:30 a.m. It has been announced by the W. R. Weir Auction company, of Winston-Salem.

The property to be sold contains 105 acres, and includes several large building lots and small acreage tracts. Free cash prizes and band music will feature the sale.

YOUNG PEOPLE ARE TO ATTEND RALLY

The young people of the Elkin district will assemble at the Methodist church in North Wilkesboro at 7:30 on Thursday evening, April 4, for a district-wide Youth Crusade Rally. The rally is a meeting of the young people emphasizing and cooperating with the Bishops' Methodist Advance Movement, a courageous forward movement of the great new church in the cause of Christ's Kingdom here on earth. Bishop Clare Purcell, of Charlotte, will be the speaker of the evening. Young people from different parts of the district will furnish special music. Large representations from each young people's organization in the district are expected to attend.

Miss Evon Eldridge, a student at Flora McDonald College, Red Springs, was the guest during the holidays of her grandmother, Mrs. I. A. Eldridge, on West Main street. She also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Eldridge, at Glade Valley.
