Mason Lillard Class To Meet Monday Evening

The Mason Lillard Bible Class of the Sunday school of the Methodist church will meet Monday evening, April 15, at 7:45 at the home of Miss Ophelia Paul on Terrace Avenue.

All members are urged to attend.

Miss Crowder Entertains Club Tuesday Evening

Miss Ola Crowder entertained members of her bridge club at the regular meeting Tuesday evening at her home on Church Street, with two tables in play. In the progressions the high score award went to Miss Roxie Bowen. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the games.

Visitors Honored by Mrs. Jackson Saturday

Honoring her week-end guests, Miss Yonnie Reich and Beatrice Miller, Mrs. Wayne Jackson entertained at a lovely party Saturday evening at her home. Following a series of games and contests a beautifully appointed refreshment course was served. The guest list included sixteen friends of the hostess.

Mrs. Brown and Miss Chappell Entertain Saturday

Mrs. Dwayne Brown and Miss Helen Chappell entertained a number of friends at a weiner roast Saturday evening at their home near Jonesville. Following the delicious supper, games were enjoyed. String music was furnished during the evening by Misses Freida and Helen Chappell. Twenty-one guests enjoyed the hospitality of the hostesses.

Polly Price is Honored on Fifth Birthday

Polly Price was honored on her fifth birthday Wednesday when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Price, entertained at a family dinner at their home on Gwyn Avenue. The dining room table was centered with a handsomely decorated birthday cake, surrounded by clusters of flowers in pastel colors.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Church and Mrs. W. J. Price, grandparents of the honoree, Mrs. D. H. Morrison, Mary Gale Price, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Price and Joe Price.

Presbyterians Have Party Wednesday Evening

Members of the Presbyterian church entertained at a delightful party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lathan Mills on Circle Court, to honor members of the church and a number of friends. A medley of games were enjoyed, with prizes going to Mrs. Lathan Mills and T. A. Leeper. The lower floor of the home was attractively arranged with jonquills and forsythia.

About thirty guests attended the delightful affair. During the evening tempting refreshments were served.

Junior Garden Club Meets; Elects Officers

Members of the Junior Garden Club met Thursday afternoon with their leader, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, at her home on Church street. The program was a talk by Miss Eleanor Hayes, on the International Flower Show in New York, which she attended.

During the business hour the following officers were elected for the year: President, Miss Eleanor Hayes, vice-president, Miss Anne Ippock, and secretary, Miss Mary Vance McAdams.

Mrs. Whitaker served delicious refreshments during the social hour to the thirteen members attending.

Miss Neaves Entertains for Miss Cox and Mr. Harris

Miss Emalene Neaves entertained at a delightful dinner party Monday evening at Hotel Elkin to honor Miss Lucile Cox and William Bernard Harris, Jr. The guest list was limited to members of their wedding party. Miss Cox and Mr. Harris will be married in a formal church ceremony on April 27.

The dinner table held as a central decoration a silver bowl filled with red carnations. A colonial bouquet of pansies and a miniature bride marked the place of the bride-elect and the place of the bridegroom-elect was marked by a miniature bridegroom.

Miss Cox was presented two Currier and Ives prints as guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Meed Feted at Farewell Party

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Meed, Jr., who will leave within a short time to make their home in Wheeling, West Va., Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cothren and Mr. and Mrs. Sig Holcomb entertained at a delightful bridge party Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb on Elk Spur Street. Four tables were placed for the games in the living room, which was adorned with bowls of jonquills and Japanese magnolias.

In the games the high score award, a double deck of cards, went to Mr. and Mrs. Meed. The honor prize went to Mrs. Frank Clanton. Mr. and Mrs. Meed were given a silver fruit bowl as guests of honor.

A beautifully appointed salad course, with numerous accessories, was served during the evening.

Baptist Circles in Group Meetings

The circles of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church met Monday and Tuesday in the following homes: Circles meeting Monday afternoon at 3:30 were the Naomi Shell, Emma Leechman and Neal Young. The Naomi Shell met with Mrs. Carl Myers on Gwyn Avenue, with 15 members and three visitors present. One new member was enrolled. Mrs. T. W. Church read the scripture lesson and Mrs. W. T. Carter offered the opening prayer. Mrs. T. L. Parnell, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and Miss Emma Cooke presented the program. A feature of the program was a vocal solo by little Miss Anne Carter.

The Emma Leechman circle met with Mrs. Silas Nichols, with Mrs. D. G. York associate hostess, with 16 members, two new members and one visitor present. Mrs. L. C. Couch, assisted by Mrs. E. C. James, conducted the devotionals. Mrs. E. C. James, guest speaker, gave an interesting talk on the meaning of prayer. The closing prayer was by Mrs. F. A. Brendle.

The Neal Young circle met with Mrs. Wallace Reynolds with 10 members present. Mrs. David Brendle, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and Mrs. I. C. Yates conducted the devotionals. The program was presented by Miss Estelle Cockerham. During the business session a collection of $5.00 was made for the linen shower for the Baptist hospital.
