Parent-Teachers to Hold Final Meet Tuesday

The final meeting of the school year of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the elementary school building Tuesday afternoon, April 23, at 3:30 o'clock. A full membership attendance is urged.

Miss Ogburn Is Hostess to Bridge Club

Miss Lucille Ogburn entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Surry Avenue Tuesday evening, with two tables in play. In the games scoring honors went to Miss Mamie Dyer.

Miss Anna Atkinson was a special guest of the club. A tempting collation was served during the evening.

Mission Circle Meets Thursday Evening

Circle number four of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Poplin on West Main street, with Mesdames Ralph Triplett and M. C. Whitener associate hostesses, with 15 members present.

Mrs. Max Boyles, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. The missionary topic "Methodist Women at Work in Their Own Communities," was presented by Mrs. John Sagar and Miss Mable Sale.

Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Mesdames Walker and Moseley Honor Seniors Monday

Honoring members of the senior class of the local high school, Mrs. L. F. Walker and Mrs. J. F. Moseley entertained members of the class and their advisor, Miss Alice Dixon, at a supper Monday evening at Abernethy's drug store. The table appointments were in red and white, the class colors. Covers were placed for 31 seniors, the hostesses and Miss Dixon.

Following the supper the guests were entertained at a theatre party.

Mrs. Haywood Is Two-Four Club Hostess Thursday

Mrs. Charles L. Haywood, Jr., entertained members of the Two-Four Bridge club and a number of visitors at a delightful bridge-luncheon Thursday at her home on Hospital Road. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and in the afternoon bridge was played at two tables. In the games the high score award went to Mrs. R. C. Freeman.

Members playing were: Mesdames H. C. Graham, J. R. Poin-dexter, Paul Gwyn, E. C. Grier and Miss Maude Greenwood. Special guests were: Mesdames R. C. Freeman, T. R. Sample and Marion Allen.

Mrs. Lillard Honors Miss Cox at Luncheon Tuesday

Honoring Miss Lucile Cox, bride-elect of the month, Mrs. J. L. Lillard entertained at a lovely luncheon Tuesday at her home on Gwyn avenue. Bowls of narcissi and forsythia were used in the decorations of the living room and dining room. Covers were placed for fourteen at small tables centered with bouquets of the same flowers.

Miss Cox was presented a pair of silver candlesticks as guest of honor.

Mrs. J. H. Townsend, of Red Springs, guest of her sister, Mrs. Mason Lillard, was the only out-of-town guest.

Miss Dorothy Colhard Is Honored on Birthday

Mrs. Fred Colhard entertained at a small dinner party at her home on Church street Wednesday evening to honor her daughter, Miss Dorothy Colhard, on her birthday anniversary. The home was attractively arranged throughout with forsythia and jonquils and the dining room table was centered with a graceful bouquet of old fashioned garden flowers.

Covers were placed for Miss Colhard, honoree, Miss Sarah Kelley Lillard, Miss Tootsie Hollingsworth, Bill Bond, Thomas Phillips and Fred Colhard. A three-course dinner was served.

Mrs. Abernethy Is Hostess at Luncheon Thursday

Having as guests members of the Thursday Book club and three visitors, Mrs. J. G. Abernethy was hostess at a lovely luncheon Thursday at her home on West Main street. Spring flowers were attractively arranged throughout the home and as centerpieces for the small tables, where covers were placed for 14.

Following the luncheon a business meeting of the club was held, this meeting marking the final one of the club year.

Guests for the luncheon in addition to club members were: Mesdames J. S. Hiatt, Herman F. Duncan and W. E. Paul.

Mrs. McNeer Fetes Bride-Elect at Party

Another of the many parties honoring Miss Lucile Cox, bride-elect of the month, was the bridge-luncheon given Saturday by Mrs. E. F. McNeer at her home on Church street. The lovely home was arranged throughout with bowls of jonquils. Luncheon was served from small tables. Among the additional guests invited for luncheon Miss Sarah Kelley Lillard drew the prize.

Bridge was played at four tables during the afternoon with Mrs. Franklin Folger winning the high score award and Mrs. Lathan Mills the runner-up prize. Miss Cox was presented a lovely tray as guest of honor.

Mrs. Willie Stroud Honors Son on Birthday Anniversary

Jimmy Ferrell Stroud was honored on his third anniversary Tuesday when his mother, Mrs. Willie Stroud, entertained at a small party in celebration of his birthday. A number of games and contests were enjoyed during the afternoon by the eight children who were invited.

The dining room presented a festive scene. Yellow and blue balloons were festooned from the ceiling and the birthday cake was in white and yellow. Jonquils were arranged throughout the room. Refreshments were served and the little guests were given candy as favors.

Mrs. Stroud was assisted in entertaining by Miss Lorene Stroud.

Mr. and Mrs. Young Entertain For Mr. and Mrs. Meed

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Meed, who will leave soon to make their home in Wheeling, West Va., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young entertained at an evening party Tuesday at their home on Elk Spur Street. Five tables were placed for bridge. Spring flowers were used in profusion throughout the reception rooms.

In the games scoring honors went to Mrs. Sig Holcomb and Clyde Cothren and honor prizes went to Mrs. Pauline Masten Par-due and Clyde Cothren. Mrs. Meed was presented a bedspread as guest of honor.

A beautifully appointed salad course was served at the conclusion of the progressions.

Mrs. Hodel Is Club Hostess Wednesday

Mrs. Earl M. Hodel entertained members of the Wednesday Afternoon Study club at the regular monthly meeting at her home in Westover Heights Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Marion Allen, program chairman, introduced J. Mark McAdams, superintendent of the city schools, who spoke interestingly on the North Carolina school system.

A two course collation was served at the conclusion of the program to the following members: Mesdames Errol Hayes, Howard Hatch, L. W. Laxton, Garland Johnson, J. H. Beeson, Fletcher Harris, Marion Allen, R. C. Freeman, Hugh Royall and Fred Neaves.

Mrs. Lawton Speaks to L. H. C. Club Thursday

Mrs. W. W. Lawton was guest speaker at the meeting of Lucy Hanes Chatham club number one Thursday evening at the club house.

Mrs. Lawton, who is spending some time here with her daughter, Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt, spoke on conditions in war-torn China, where she served for a number of years as a missionary, returning to the United States only last year. Her talk was highly enjoyed.

During the business session plans were made for combining the night groups of the former Winston-Salem and Elkin clubs, and a nominating committee was appointed to select officers for the new organization.

Approximately 45 members attended the meeting.

Mason Lillard Class Meets Monday Evening

The Mason Lillard Bible class of the Sunday school of the Methodist church met Monday evening at the home of Miss Ophelia Paul on Terrace avenue. The president, Mrs. Fred Colhard, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals.

During the meeting plans were made for the Youth Caravan to be here next month. The caravan is a group of trained workers sponsored by the church conference to aid in the promotion of the youth crusade, which is a major program in the work of the church this year. Other routine business was dispatched. The concluding feature of the program was a vocal solo "In the Time of Roses," by Miss Josephine Paul.

Refreshments were served by the hostess during a pleasant social hour.

Group Meeting of Methodist Circles Monday

The monthly group meeting of the circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met at the church Monday afternoon with a splendid attendance.

Mrs. George Royall, president, presided. The opening prayer was by Mrs. J. L. Hall. The missionary topic was presented by Mrs. Herman F. Duncan, who told of the work and life of Bishop Lambeth. A vocal duet, "The Perfect Prayer," by Misses Lena Sale and Peggy Royall, concluded the program.

During the business session plans were made for a church social to be held in the near future and Mrs. Joe Bivins was named chairman of the social committee.

Mrs. R. C. Freeman explained to the group the work of renovating the parsonage, which is now in process. Other routine matters were dispatched.

Beta Club Meets; Elects Officers

The meeting of the Beta Club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Dorothy Hutchins, with Jim Harrell, president of the club, presiding. Elections of officers featured the business session. Miss Jo Barker was named president; Hugh Holcomb, vice-president; Miss Peggy Royall, secretary and John Gambill, treasurer.

Fifteen new members were received into the club as follows: Bob Harris, Joe Harris, Mary Frances Combs, Marie Hutchins, Roger Gentry, Margaret Carter, Mary Feltz, Nues Bray, Susie Grace Hemric, Virginia Holcomb, Eleanor Hayes, Maxine Aldridge, Wendell Martin, Joy Kingsley and Marjorie Kingsley.

The program was in charge of Hugh Holcomb on education after high school. Assisting with the program were: Ruth Martin, Eva Johnson, Eloise Sparks, Bill Graham and Jim Harrell.

Juniors Fete Upperclassmen Saturday Evening

Highlighting the social activities of the younger set for the week was the Junior-Senior banquet which was held Saturday evening in the banquet hall of Hotel Elkin. The affair was in the form of a Spanish fiesta and the banquet hall was decorated with red hawthorne, greenery, Spanish pottery and streamers of red, green and yellow.

Covers were placed for one hundred and two, including the 31 members of the senior class, the 64 juniors, members of the high school faculty, grade mothers of both classes, J. Mark McAdams, superintendent of the city schools, and Mrs. McAdams. Bowls of hawthorne and gaily colored pottery decorated the banquet tables and the programs were decorated with lace fans and red roses.

Hugh Holcomb, president of the junior class, acted as toastmaster for the evening and gave a welcome to the upperclassmen. Responses were made by Miss Nancy Moseley, president of the senior class, and Bill Graham. Miss Jo Barker gave a toast to the grade-mothers and J. Mark McAdams gave a toast to the students of both classes in behalf of the faculty. The program was interspersed with Spanish music by Miss Peggy Royall, piano soloist, a reading by Miss Elizabeth Bohannon, a vocal solo by Miss Lena Sale, and a clever dance, the Spanish Serenade, by Miss Constance Greenwood and Eldon Burgess. A "bull fight," staged by John Gambill, in the form of a contest between members of the two classes, afforded much merriment. A Spanish fan dance by the waitresses, composed of members of the rising junior class, was also a feature of the program. Tom Whatley presented each of the seniors with a small gift characteristic of their talents in a clever skit entitled "Spanish Love Charms."

The concluding numbers were songs to the seniors by members of the junior class and the response in song by the upperclassmen.

Following the banquet dancing was enjoyed.
