Reid-Motsinger Rites Announced
Of interest to friends of the bride here, where she has frequently visited, is the following announcement:

"Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Motsinger of Winston-Salem announce the marriage of their daughter, Myrtle Chatham, to John Calvin Reid, on Wednesday, April 17, at her home at Bartlesville, Okla., after May 1."

Mrs. Smith Is Hostess to Club Wednesday

Mrs. R. G. Smith entertained members of her bridge club and a few visitors at a delightful bridge-luncheon Wednesday at her home on Gwyn avenue. The home was attractively arranged with bowls of apple blossoms and lilacs. Bridge was played at two tables in the morning and luncheon was served at one o'clock.

The club award for high score in the progressions went to Mrs. A. O. Bryan and the visitor's prize to Mrs. R. M. Ogburn.

Observe 25th Wedding Anniversary

Pictured above are Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Greenwood, who last Sunday observed their 25th wedding anniversary at their home east of Elkin. A large crowd attended and enjoyed dinner served on the grounds. Mr. Greenwood is a candidate for nomination to the Surry board of commissioners on the Republican ticket, having been the first to file for this job in the current race.

Barker's eighth grade and Miss Alice Dixon's senior class tied for the award.

Miss Cockerham Is Honored at Farewell Party

A delightful courtesy to Miss Estelle Cockerham, who left Wednesday for Washington, D. C., to reside, was the party given at the home of Mrs. Fred Harris on West Main street Tuesday evening by members of the Dorcas class of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church, which she has been serving as teacher for some time. The party was doubly significant, as it also honored Miss Cockerham on her birthday anniversary.

The living room, library and dining room were elaborately arranged with bowls of purple lilacs and white narcissi, effecting a color scheme of purple and white. The same colors were observed in the decorations of the two-tier birthday cake, which was sliced and served with punch during the evening.

A number of games and contests were enjoyed and Miss Cockerham was presented a lovely array of gifts.

Twenty-eight members of the class and three visitors, Mrs. Carl Shore, of Yadkinville, Mrs. F. M. Poore, of Mt. Airy, and Mrs. P. D. Pegram, of Roanoke, Va., sisters of Miss Cockerham, enjoyed the event.

The hospitality committee was headed by Mrs. Harvey Baker, chairman.

Engagement of Miss Lillard and Mr. Dillon is Announced

Outstanding among the social events of the week was the informal tea given Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Mrs. John Sagar at her home on Hospital Road, to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of her sister, Miss Carolyn Lillard to Van W. Dillon, Jr., the wedding to take place next month.

The living room and den were decorated with bowls of dogwood blossoms, tulips and pansies. In the dining room bridal green and white were used. The tea table was centered with a bouquet of white lilacs and narcissi and on either end of the table were white candles in crystal holders, tied with bows of white tulle. The announcement was made from a card resting against a miniature bride and bridegroom, bearing the inscription, "Carolyn-Van, May 30".

Tea was served buffet style with Mrs. Fred Hobson of Yadkinville, presiding at the table.

The guest list included twenty-five. Mrs. Ben Campen of Red Springs, cousin of the hostess and bride-elect, was the only out-of-town guest.

Miss Lillard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Lillard, and Mr. Dillon is the son of Van W. Dillon, Sr., and the late Mrs.

Dillon. The marriage, which will be of interest throughout the state, will be solemnized in a home ceremony.

Miss Lillard and Mrs. Campen were both presented lovely gifts.

He was studying the menu as the waitress approached to take the order.

"Do you have frogs' legs?" he asked.

"No, sir," she replied. "Rheumatism makes me walk this way."
