

Death Claims Aged Wilkes County Woman

Mrs. Lucinda Riley Swift, 92, a native of Wilkes county, but for many years a resident of the State Road community, died Wednesday afternoon at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. S. L. McNeil, in Winston-Salem, with whom she had resided for 8 years.

Mrs. Swift was the daughter of the late Mrs. John Riley. She was twice married, first to J. D. York, and after his death to Walsh Swift. Both husbands and two children of her first marriage preceded her in death.

Mrs. Swift was a member of Grassy Creek Methodist church, near Elkin, and during her residence in this section made a host of friends who mourn her passing. She had been in declining health for several months but her condition was critical only a week before her passing.

She is survived by two stepsons, J. A. Swift and J. S. Swift, of State Road, four grandsons and four granddaughters.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from Pleasant Ridge Baptist church in Surry county. The rites were in charge of Rev. L. B. Murray. Grandsons and great-grandsons of the deceased were pallbearers.

PLEASANT HILL

Honoring Miss Mozelle Darnell on her birthday, a dinner was given on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Darnell. A beautiful birthday cake with candles was the central decoration. Miss Darnell's close friends were the only guests.

Our sick list this week includes Mrs. Ella Luffman, who is in the hospital, and Mrs. Lula Bryant, who has been ill for some time but is now improving nicely.

Rev. D. W. Day filled his regular place Sunday morning at the morning service, with Rev. Wooten, of Hamptonville, preaching Sunday night.

Mrs. Mollie Phillips and Willie Transou spent Saturday in Winston-Salem.

The F. H. C. class of Pleasant Hill church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Cockerham, Thursday, April 25. The business of the class was transacted in the forepart of the meeting, with Miss Mozelle Darnell presiding. The meeting was then turned over to the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Russell Casey. An interesting debate was given by selected members of the class on the question, Resolved: The Radio is a down pull to our country from the religious standpoint. Affirmative, Anna Laura Ray and Gertha Collins; negative, Ruth Ray and Gladys Transou. Judges were also members of the class. At the latter part of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Delightful refreshments were served to the twenty members present. Games were played with Anna Laura Ray and Mrs. Russell Casey winning prizes.

The W. M. U. of the Pleasant Hill Baptist church met Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Robert Wilmoth, with eleven members present. Mrs. Grace Eads, assistant leader, presided over the meeting. The hymn for the year, "How Firm a Foundation," was sung for the opening song which was followed by prayer by Mrs. A. W. Wood. Only routine reports were heard. Mrs. Jack Smoot was in charge of the program. Mrs. Robert Wilmoth read the scripture. Others assisting with the program were Mrs. A. W. Wood and Mrs. Grace Eads. Mrs. C. R. Darnell closed the meeting with prayer.
