Legion Auxiliary to Meet Monday Evening

The Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion will meet Monday evening, May 13, at the home of Mrs. French Graham on West Main street, with Mrs. Dixie Graham associate hostess. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Phillips Honors Brides to Be at Party

Honoring Miss Caroline Lillard, bride-elect of May, and Miss Emalene Neaves, bride-elect of June, Mrs. Lee Phillips entertained at an informal morning party Monday at her home on Gwyn avenue. Twelve friends of the honorees were invited. Miss Neaves and Miss Lillard were each presented gifts from the hostess.

Junior Garden Club Meets with Miss Salmans

The Junior Garden club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Dorothy Jean Salmans on Church street, with fourteen members present. The program was in observation of National Music Week and featured a musical-flower program, with piano solos by Misses Maxine Aldridge, Grace Laffoon, Anne Ipock and Cynthia Allen. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. Sample Is Luncheon Hostess Monday

Mrs. T. R. Sample entertained at a delightful morning party and luncheon Monday at Hotel Elkin. Bridge was played at three tables in the forenoon, with the high score award going to Mrs. A. O. Bryan and the runner-up award to Mrs. Marion Allen at the close of a series of interesting progressions. Luncheon was served at one o'clock in the main dining room of the hotel. The luncheon table was centered with a graceful bouquet of mixed garden flowers.

Mrs. Laffoon Is Club Hostess Friday Evening

Mrs. H. F. Laffoon entertained the Round Dozen Book club at the regular fortnightly meeting at her home on Church street Friday evening, with a full membership attendance. The guests

Set Fine Records

The two girls above, students of Copeland high school, have chalked up remarkable records in attendance. Peggy Wood, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Wood, of Copeland, and Lois Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Perkins, also of Copeland, haven't missed a day in 11 and 12 years in school, respectively.

were invited for dinner at 6:30. The home was arranged throughout with colorful spring flowers. Covers were placed for twelve.

During the evening rook was played at three tables. The high score award went to Mrs. W. C. Cox at the conclusion of the play and the runner-up award to Mrs. Fred McNeely.

Mrs. Cooley Is Hostess at Party Thursday

Mrs. T. F. Cooley was hostess at a lovely morning party and luncheon Thursday at her home at Klondike Farm. Tulips were used in the reception rooms, where four tables were placed for bridge. In the progressions the high score award went to Mrs. Earl M. Hodel and the bingo prize to Mrs. Raymond Chatham.

Four additional friends were invited for luncheon at one o'clock. A two-course collation was served.

Miss Emalene Neaves, bride-elect of June, was presented a lovely gift.

Carrie Woodruff Circle Meets Tuesday Evening

The Carrie Woodruff circle of the Y. W. A. of Elkin Valley Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Adeline Wilkins, with 9 members present.

Miss Helen Hayes, president, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. The program on "Mother's Day" was presented by Miss Frances Martin, assisted by Misses Helen Hayes, Coleen White, Ruth Martin, Adeline Wilkins, Grace Lawrence and Mrs. Roy Collins.

During a pleasant social hour the hostess served a delicious refreshment course.

Circle Meets With Miss Sale and Mesdames Evans, Holcomb

Circle number four of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Mable Sale, with Mrs. Dick Evans and Mrs. Jones Holcomb associate hostesses, with fourteen members and two visitors present.

Mrs. Max Boyles, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. An interesting program on mission work in China was presented by Mrs. Sheffie Graham and Mrs. Alden Hunt. The concluding number was a vocal solo "As Pants the Hart," by Miss Josephine Paul.

During a pleasant social hour the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Harrell Honors Miss Lillard at Party Wednesday

Honoring Miss Caroline Lillard, popular bride-elect of May 30, Mrs. R. B. Harrell entertained at a delightful luncheon Thursday at her home on West Main street. White lilacs, lily-of-the-valley, pink tulips and candles made an attractive background for the four tables which were placed for the luncheon guests and bridge.

Three additional friends to the twenty invited for bridge were included in the luncheon guests. They were Mrs. Mason Lillard, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. R. J. Barker and Mrs. E. F. McNeer.

In the bridge progressions scoring honors went to Mrs. Richard C. Chatham and Mrs. Franklin Folger for high and low scores respectively.

Miss Lillard was given a pair of pictures as guest of honor.

Miss Gray Is Hostess to Club Friday Evening

Miss Agnes Gray delightfully entertained members of the Playmakers Club and several visitors at a bridge party at her home on Franklin street Friday evening. Bowls of tulips and spirea were used in the living room, where three tables were placed for the games. In the progressions the club award for high score, a box of dusting powder, went to Miss Hazel Phillips. The guest prize for high score, a handkerchief, went to Mrs. Wayne Phillips. Mrs. Phillips also won costume jewelry as the honor prize.

At the conclusion of the play a prettily appointed refreshment refreshment course was served.

Guests in addition to the club members were: Mesdames Wayne Phillips, Clyde Carroll, William McIlwee and W. O. Hopper.

Mrs. Poindexter Gives Bridge-Luncheon for Bride-Elect

Another of the delightful social courtesies for Miss Emalene Neaves, bride-elect of June, was the bridge-luncheon given Friday by Mrs. J. R. Poindexter at Hotel Elkin. The club room of the hotel was reserved for the guests and elaborately decorated with tulips in brilliant colors. The bride-elect's table was centered with a bouquet of valley lilies surrounded by wedding bells, tied with white satin ribbons. The other tables were centered with red geraniums in red and white pots. Covers were placed for 36. Among the luncheon guests Miss Anna Atkinson drew the prize. In the afternoon bridge was enjoyed with table prizes going to Miss Neaves, Mrs. E. W. McDaniel, Mrs. Charles L. Haywood, Jr., Mrs. T. F. Cooley, Mrs. R. C. Freeman and Mrs. W. B. Lankford. Miss Neaves was also presented a lovely gift as guest of honor. Over 31,000 tons of paraffin were converted into candles in Italy last year.
