Boonville Y. W. A. Convenes

The Y. W. A. of Boonville Baptist church met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Watt Deal, Misses Erma and Marie Hicks were associate hostesses to the gathering.

Mrs. Elizabeth Reece was program leader. An interesting program on the general topic, "Missionary May Queens," was presented by various members of the organization.

Miss Marie Hicks gave the devotionals and Mrs. Allan Jessup led in prayer.

The program, centered around several outstanding missionary women and girls that overcame great pagan handicaps, poor health and various other deficiencies to become Christian leaders in various parts of the world, was very interesting.

The following took part on the program: Mrs. Watt Deal, Mrs. Allan Jessup, Miss Ruby Hinshaw, Mrs. Arlie Steelman and Miss Dorothy Coram.

A short business session was held immediately after the program. It was decided to send $4.00 to Miss Bertha Hine of Jonesville, for associational expenses. The next meeting will be with Mrs. T. M. Reece.

One new member, Miss Lorene Campbell, was welcomed into the society. Three visitors, Rosa Walker, Marie Perkins and Mrs. Raymond Connell, were present. Refreshments, consisting of cake, punch and candy were served.

GOVERNOR

L. LEE GRAVELLY

As Mayor of Rocky Mount, LEE GRAVELLY reduced the tax rate from ninety-two cents to fifty-six cents, and his administration of the city's affairs was considered by fiscal experts to be by far the best in the entire South.

As your next Governor of North Carolina, GRAVELLY says it will be his purpose to "give the State an efficient business administration in which one hundred cents of benefit shall be derived from every tax dollar expended."

Elkin Ladies Endorse Dobson For Legislature

We, the undersigned ladies of Elkin and Surry county desire to endorse and recommend Henry C. Dobson as a Member of the House of Representatives from Surry County, North Carolina, for the 1941 session as we believe Mr. Dobson to be the proper person at this time to represent us, and that he deserves this office because of his experience and qualifications. We will, therefore, take pleasure in voting for him in the Democratic primary on May 25.
