

TO OBSERVE HOMECOMING

Event to Be Staged at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church June 2nd

REVIVAL IS TO BEGIN

There will be a home-coming day observed at Pleasant Hill Baptist church, two miles west of Elkin, on the first Sunday in June. An interesting program has been planned and everyone is extended an invitation to attend. At the morning service all former pastors have been invited to take part on the program. A short memorial service for all former pastors who are deceased will also be held. In the afternoon singing by the local singers and all visiting singers will be enjoyed. At noon dinner will be served on the grounds and everyone is asked to bring a well-filled basket.

At the night service a series of revival services will begin, with Rev. Richard Day and Rev. D. W. Day in charge.

BETHEL

Rev. and Mrs. W. V. Brown were welcome visitors at Sunday school here at Bethel last Sunday morning. Mr. Brown made a talk after the classes reassembled.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilliam visited relatives here last Wednesday evening.

T. S. Jones, of Winston-Salem, is spending some time here at the home of his brother, W. H. Jones.

Misses Hattie and Francis Durham, of Swan Creek, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Green here.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. M. F. Gregory held at Jonesville Thursday afternoon. Mr. Gregory had many friends in this community. He and his family were residents of this place several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gilliam attended services at East Elkin church last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mollie Ann Osborn is spending this week visiting relatives in the Temple Hill community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Armstrong, of Winston-Salem, spent the past week-end here at their summer home and had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Miseneheimer and Mr. and Mrs. Mac Miseneheimer, of that city.

Gilliam Reunion June 9th at Sparta

The annual reunion of the Gilliam family will be held Sunday, June 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reece Gilliam, one and one-half miles west of Sparta on U. S. highway 21.

One or more prominent men will be secured to speak during the day. The following quartets will be present: Southern Harmonizers, Wilkesboro; Friendly Four, Yadkin Valley Four and the Jones Family.

All relatives are expected to attend, also friends are invited. Bring a basket for the picnic dinner.

J. A. Gilliam, of North Wilkesboro, is chairman of the reunion and Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Ronda, is secretary.

Singing Is Well Attended
The Eber Creek quartet singing held at Bethel church last Sunday afternoon was largely attended.

The devotional was conducted by the Rev. D. G. Reece, a well beloved minister who was a former pastor of this church.

Rev. Mr. Crater, the chairman, enrolled twelve groups of singers who had a part in the program as follows: Jones Family, Southern Harmonizers, Pleasant Grove, West Yadkin, Wilkesboro, Eveready, Friendly Quartet, Yadkin Valley Four, Oak Grove, Little Richmond and Charity. By request Rev. Mr. Brown sang the impressive hymn, "The Poor Wayfaring Stranger." Mr. Brown, a minister and a singing teacher, is well known for his ability to sing and has an excellent voice.

The many who were unable to find room in the building could easily hear the singing by means of the loud speaker furnished by David Brown, of Elkin.

The singing closed late in the afternoon with a prayer by Rev. W. V. Brown. The next meeting will be held at Pleasant Grove church the third Sunday afternoon in August.

Pleasant Ridge

We had 158 present for Sunday school Sunday.

Next Sunday is Decoration Day. Everybody is requested to bring flowers to decorate the cemetery after Sunday school.

The Woman's Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. V. W. Luffman Tuesday evening, May 13, with 14 members and six visitors present. The meeting opened with a song and prayer by Mrs. W. W. Luffman.

The program centered around the topic, "Youth Steadfast for Christ," with all members present taking part in the program.

The women of the society invited their husbands to be guests at the meeting. Mr. B. W. Carter and Mr. M. M. Layell made talks that were enjoyed by all.

Mrs. B. W. Carter honored her son, Alex, on his 12th birthday Saturday evening. Games and contests were enjoyed by the 12 invited guests.

Mrs. Ella Layell closed the meeting with prayer. Delicious refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Cochran were visitors in this community Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Colonel Harris, of Pilot Mountain, visited relatives in this community over the weekend.

Mrs. Bertice Luffman and Miss Winie Frances Luffman are on our sick list.

EAST ELKIN

Mr. E. J. Flincham, of Mount Airy, visited his brother, Rev. Claude E. Flincham, here Monday.

The revival meeting is going on at East Elkin Baptist church with Rev. N. B. Hayes, of North Wilkesboro, bringing the messages which have been inspiring. Several have joined the church already.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Newman spent Sunday the guest of Mrs. Newman's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Richard Day, of Pleasant Hill community.

Rev. Claude E. Flincham and Doyle Newman expect to spend Sunday in Lexington attending home-coming service at the church where Rev. Flincham was a former pastor and he will have part in the annual service there.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Haynes, mother of Mr. Charlie Haynes, of this community, is very ill at the hospital here. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Rev. J. L. Powers will fill his regular appointment at Mountain View Baptist church at Cycle Sunday. This church has made rapid progress since Brother Powers has been pastor.

ARLINGTON

The Woman's Missionary Society met for their regular monthly meeting at the church Friday evening at 7:30, with the president, Mrs. J. H. Dunman, in charge.

Mrs. Mont Swaim has returned home from Lynchburg, Va., where she spent a few days visiting her sister.

Mrs. John Wall, who has been ill for some time, is improving, her many friends will be glad to know.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Reece and son, Turman, spent Sunday in Galax, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. John Spann have moved to their new home in Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Long and daughter, Peggy, spent Sunday in Winston-Salem and Greensboro.

Mr. N. W. Reece of Boonville, is visiting his son, Mr. W. M. Reece, and Mrs. Reece, this week.

OAK GROVE

A number of friends attended the birthday celebration at the home of John Cook Sunday.

Misses Mozelle Salmons, of Cycle, and Miss Peggy Holcomb, of Jonesville, were the overnight guests Saturday of Misses Bertha and Edith Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley Sale, of Center, spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stokes.

Miss Edith Cook returned the latter part of the week from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Ruby Park, of Boonville.

Spode

BLUE CAMILLA

Charming old English design done in soft blue, printed from old copper plates engraved about 1783 and carefully preserved, as Spode never discontinues a pattern. Very reasonable in price.

Fostoria

"NAVARRE"

A CHARMING NEW FOSTORIA PATTERN

"Feathery"—That's the word that best describes the unusually fine etching of a most delightfully delicate design. In "Navarre" you find a line of stemware and tableware that is new... a Master Etching feature this year for the first time. So exquisite is its richness that already it has become a leader in the field of fine crystalware.

The price... definitely moderate.
