Dinner was served in the private dining room of the Bon-Ton Grill. Covers were placed for twelve at a beautifully appointed table. Following the dinner bridge was played at the home of Mrs. Paul-

"Build-Up" for Women
Periodic distress, such as headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain, may be symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, so often helped by CARDUI. By increasing appetite, stimulating flow of gastric juices and so assisting digestion, it helps build physical resistance to periodic discomfort. It also helps reduce periodic distress for many who take it a few days before and during "the time." Try CARDUI. Used 50 years.

Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Lapsley Entertain Wednesday

Mrs. Roger Carter, of this city, and her sister, Mrs. Fraser Lapsley, of Badin, entertained Wednesday at a lovely luncheon at the home of their mother, Mrs. J. L. Hall, on West Main street, to honor Misses Emalene Neaves and Caroline Lillard, two popular brides-elect.

The home was artistically arranged throughout with pink and white peonies. The bride's table was centered with a miniature bridal party and the other tables were centered with nosegays of old fashioned garden flowers. Covers were laid for 28.

Miss Caroline Lillard drew the prize, a crystal powder box, among the guests. Miss Lillard was also presented a vase and Miss Neaves was given a hors d'oeuvres tray. Mrs. Wilbur Carter, a bride of the early spring, was given an ice bucket.

Mesdames Carter and Butner Fete Brides-Elect Friday

Honoring Miss Emalene Neaves and Miss Caroline Lillard, brides-elect, Mrs. Roger Carter and Mrs. Henry Butner entertained with a dessert-bridge Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carter on Bridge street. The home was decorated throughout with peonies and sweet peas in pastel shades.

Bridge was played during the afternoon at six tables and four additional friends came in for dessert. In the bridge progressions scoring honors went to Mrs. C. J. Hyslop and Mrs. John Sagar for high and runner-up scores respectively. Miss Lillard was presented a vegetable dish in her pattern of china and Miss Neaves was presented silver in her wedding pattern. Among the group who did not play bridge Mrs. Wilbur Carter drew the prize.

Ices, moulded in wedding designs, and individual cakes were served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris, Jr., Entertain at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris, Jr., entertained at a delightful dinner party Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cox, on Gwyn Avenue, to honor Miss Emalene Neaves and Hartley Lord, who will be married in June, and Miss Caroline Lillard and Van W. Dillon, Jr., who will be married this evening.

The lower floor of the home was decorated with iris and roses and the seven small tables, where covers were placed for 28, were centered with bouquets of pansties. A beautifully appointed dinner was served.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. James Baldwin of Medina, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Voss of Greensboro, and Miss Jane Wilson of Washington, D. C. Miss Neaves was presented a pair of silver candlesticks and Miss Lillard was given a platter in her pattern of china. Each of the out-of-town visitors was presented a remembrance.
