Legion Auxiliary to Meet Monday Evening

The Woman's Auxiliary of the George Gray Post of the American Legion will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. C. Martin on West Main street, with Mesdames Beatrice Myers Phillips and Fred McNeely associate hostesses. All members are cordially invited to attend.

Mission Circle to Meet This Evening

Circle number four of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet this evening (Thursday) at 7:45, at the home of Mrs. E. Carl Boyles, on West Main street, with Mesdames J. Coke Marion and Clyde Hall associate hostesses. All members are invited to attend.

Mrs. Bryan Is Hostess To Club At Luncheon

Having as guests members of her bridge club and several visitors, Mrs. A. O. Bryan entertained at a delightful bridge-luncheon Wednesday at Hotel Elkin. Luncheon was served at one o'clock and bridge was played during the afternoon. In the progress scoring honors went to Mrs. H. C. Graham.

Guests in addition to the club members were: Mesdames Marion Allen, Errol Hayes, J. R. Poin-dexter and E. S. Spainhour.

Mrs. McNeely Is Hostess To Club Friday Evening

Mrs. Fred McNeely entertained members of the Round Dozen Club at the regular fortnightly meeting Friday evening at her home on West Main street. Three tables were placed for rook amid a pretty setting of colorful garden flowers. In the games scoring honors went to Mrs. W. C. Cox and Mrs. J. Coke Marion.

An ice course was served at the conclusion of the play.

Mesdames Franklin and McNeely Entertain At Family Dinner

Mesdames R. G. Franklin and Fred McNeely entertained at a family dinner Sunday at their home on West Main street, honoring Mrs. Numa Causey of Lincolnton, niece of Mrs. Franklin, and their week-end guest, on her birthday anniversary.

A beautifully appointed dinner was served at one o'clock.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. F. H. Bobbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jones and Miss Betty Jones, all of Inverness, Florida, and Mrs. Causey, the honoree, and her husband, of Lincolnton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lillard Fete Bridal Couple

Honoring Miss Caroline Lillard and Van W. Dillon, Jr., who were married Thursday evening in a beautiful ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Lillard, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lillard entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at their home on Gwyn avenue. The home was decorated throughout with pink and white rosebuds and sweet peas. Covers were placed for twenty-six. The guest list included members of the bridal party and out-of-town wedding guests.

Carrie Woodruff Circle Meets Monday

The Carrie Woodruff circle of the Y. W. A. of the Elkin Valley Baptist church met Monday evening at the home of Miss Bertice Bates, with Mrs. Jack Simmons associate hostess, with 10 members and one visitor present.

Miss Helen Hayes conducted the devotionals and presided over the business meeting.

Miss Coleen White and Miss Ruth Martin were in charge of the program, assisted by Misses Mable Tulbert, Marguerite Cockerham, Frances and Jean Martin, Mae Cockerham, Bertice Bates and Mrs. Jack Simmons.

Refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Miss Mathis Is Hostess to Mission Circle

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Jonesville Methodist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mary Mathis with nine members and two visitors present.

Miss Catherine Boles presented the program, using as her subject, "Christian Brotherhood." The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Wilmoth Swaim. Mrs. R. G. Boles made an interesting talk on the "The Spirit of Christ in Our Social Work."

Mrs. L. S. Weaver, president of the society, presided over the business session, which featured routine business.

Delicious refreshments were served during a pleasant social hour.

Mesdames Chatham and Mottsinger Entertain Thursday

Honoring Miss Caroline Lillard and Van W. Dillon, Jr., of this city, who were married on Thursday evening of last week, and Miss Emalene Neaves, of this city, and Hartley Lord, of Kennebunk, Me., and Boston, who will be married Saturday at high noon, Mesdames Alex and Raymond Chatham, of this city, and Mrs. M. E. Mottsinger, of Winston-Salem, entertained at a delightful luncheon Thursday at one o'clock at Hotel Elkin. Sharing honors with the bridal couples were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harris, Jr., of this city, who were married in April. Guests for the luncheon included out-of-town guests for the Lillard-Dillon wedding, and members of the families of the honor guests.

Lovely corsages marked the places of the brides-elect and the bride, and summer flowers in pastel shades were used in the appointments of the luncheon table.

Mission Circles Meet Monday Afternoon

The circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the following homes:

Circle number one met with Mrs. H. P. Graham on Gwyn avenue, with Mrs. Handy associate hostess, with 16 members present. Mrs. J. G. Abernethy, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and conducted the devotionals. The Bible lesson was taught by Mrs. R. G. Smith.

Circle number two met with Mrs. R. C. Freeman on Church street, with Mrs. D. G. Smith associate hostess, with 20 members present. Mrs. R. C. Freeman, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and Mrs. Herman F. Duncan conducted the devotionals. The Bible lesson was taught by Mrs. J. L. Hall, assisted by Mesdames R. C. Freeman, George Royall, Herman F. Duncan and W. M. Evans. A vocal trio by Mesdames E. G. Click, E. F. Mc-

Neer and Herman F. Duncan concluded the program.

Circle number three met with Mrs. M. R. Bailey on Gwyn avenue, with 15 members present. Mrs. Charles G. Ashby, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and the devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Anna Graham. The Bible lesson was taught by Mrs. J. Harold Click.

During a pleasant social hour each of the hostesses served a tempting refreshment course.

Miss Lillard Is Bride of Mr. Dillon In Home Ceremony

Of widespread interest is the marriage of Miss Caroline Worth Lillard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Lillard, and Van W. Dillon, Jr., both of this city, which was solemnized on Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, on Gwyn avenue. Dr. R. C. Anderson of Montreat, and Rev. Herman F. Duncan, pastor of the bride, officiated.

Mrs. Franklin Folger, pianist, and Miss Josephine Paul, soprano soloist, gave a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Folger played "Liebestraum," Liszt; Miss Paul sang "I Love Thee," Grieg, and "All For Thee," Bertrand-Braun. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used as a processional. During the ceremony Mrs. Folger played "O Perfect Love," Barnby.

The mantel of the living room, banked with southern smilax, was centered with a bowl of mixed white flowers. White tapers burned on each end. Other bowls of white flowers were used throughout the room.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Henry Dillon served as his brother's best man. Mrs. John Vernon Sagar, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

White velvety starched chiffon fashioned the bride's gown, which was made with a fitted bodice and full skirt ending in a train. Long sleeves were fitted to points over her hands. Her finger-tip length veil of illusion was made with a coronet of lace held in place with a band of orange blossoms. She carried a small colonial bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her only ornament was a pendant of topaz and seed pearls made from her maternal great-grandmother's wedding earring.

The matron of honor wore a gown of pale yellow velvety starched chiffon, fashioned on lines similar to that of the bride. She wore a gold locket, a family heirloom, and carried a mixed bouquet.

Mrs. Mason Lillard, mother of the bride, wore old rose lace and her flowers were roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bride graduated from Queens College in Charlotte. She is a member of the Chi Omega Sorority, and Alpha Kappa Gamma and Alpha Lambda Mu, honorary fraternities. Since the announcement of the engagement she has been widely feted.

Mr. Dillon is the son of Van W. Dillon, Sr., and the late Mrs. Dillon, of Elkin. He was educated at Davidson College. At present he holds a position with Chatham Manufacturing company.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dillon left for a short wedding trip. For travel the bride wore a suit of navy blue and white with white accessories, and a shoulder bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley.

After June 5th Mr. and Mrs. Dillon will be at home in Elkin.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. R. B. Knox, Worth Knox and Mrs. A. H. Crowell of Newton; Misses Josephine, Ruth Allen and Anne Worth of Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Kelley and Bill Kelley of Raleigh; Forest Kelley of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Kelley and children, Janet and Dick, of Erwin; E. W. Smith of Dunn; Mrs. James Townsend and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Campen, Jr., of Red Springs; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Lillard, Mrs. C. M. Schoonover and Carl Schoonover of Charlotte; Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Anderson of Montreat; Miss Elva Kelley of Salisbury; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Mottsinger of Alex and Gene Mottsinger of Winston-Salem; Mrs. James Baldwin of Medina, Ohio; Mrs. Lillian D. Wooten and Sterling Wooten of Goldsboro, and Mrs. W. R. Crews, of La-Grange.

TAP DANCING FEATURE OF KIWANIS MEETING

A tap dance by Miss Constance Greenwood, accompanied at the piano by Miss Dorothy Colhard, was a feature of the entertainment at the meeting of the Elkin Kiwanis club at Hotel Elkin last Thursday evening.

The program was in charge of Kiwanian D. G. Smith, program chairman of the club.

Next Tuesday the local club will meet with the Yadkinville Civitan club at Yadkinville.

Calvin Wright, of Greensboro, was a guest of Kiwanian Tom Shugart.
